Syria Leader Hits U. S. On False Threat

Refutes Contention Soviet To Control Mid-East Country

DAMASCUS (AP)—Syria's acting defense minister has charged the United States raised a false threat of a Communist takeover in Syria in order to hide its own bid for greater Middle Eastern influence. Khaled el Azem joined other Syrian officials in denying that Syria is falling under Soviet control as a result of leftist officers taking control of the army.

The United States knows Syria will not accept foreign influence, Azem told American reporters yesterday.

"You pretend we have become Communist and are under the influence of the Soviet Union. . . . You use this as a weapon and propaganda, hoping to frighten people who fear communism and who are afraid of their goods."

"If you told people frankly the real purpose, which is to replace British and French influence by your own and to guarantee the interest of oil companies and other monopolies, the American people would not help by giving you funds."

A statement read by Azem said the American people and President Eisenhower fail to understand the Arab mind and Arab aims. U. S. help to imperialism and Zionism "willing or unwillingly . . . is preventing any understanding between the Arab and American peoples," he declared.

"In addition, you (America) want to dictate your will to all people and want them to follow the same policy. You want to dominate large and small countries."

Azem said Russia "wants Syria to be entirely free from the influence of the West as well as the Soviet Union itself."

Four Men Killed In Plane Wreck

NEW YORK (AP)—Four of six crewmen were killed yesterday when a twin-engine Coast Guard amphibious plane crashed and burned while taking off from Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn.

One of the crew, Frederick E. West Jr., aviation electrician's mate F.C. of Columbus, Ohio, walked from the scene of the crash. He was treated for shock.

Miller, who had a long string of gambling arrests and who had served time in Ohio and West Virginia, was last seen Saturday night when he left his wife and

Reuther, Curtice Clash

Union, GM President Tangle On Inflation

DETROIT (AP)—President Harlow Curtice of General Motors and Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers were squared off in verbal battle today on inflation remedies. GM, replying to the union's proposal for an average $100 cut on 1958 car models, has counterproposed a two-year extension of its union contract that expires next spring.

Reuther, commenting on the countermove, accused General Motors of "shocking disregard" of public welfare. He also charged the company with intending to "go on short-changing American consumers through higher prices."

The Curtice-Reuther exchange came yesterday. First, Curtice made his proposal in a letter to Reuther describing it as a constructive step against inflation. The United Auto Workers president followed up in a public statement.

He said Curtice's letter was an "arbitrary rejection" of the union's price cut proposal. He then denounced GM, declaring the company evades basic issues.

Last week Reuther proposed to the auto industry's Big Three of GM, Chrysler and Ford that they cut 1958 car prices by an average of $100 a car. In return he said the union would be willing to adjust next year's contract demands.

Reuther has not indicated what concessions the union might offer. The UAW has said it will seek higher wages and a shorter work week next spring when three-year contracts in the auto industry expire.

GM has been the first to reply to the union.

An extension of contracts, as Curtice proposed, would not infringe on cost-of-living changes or annual productivity increases nor provided for in the contracts. The auto worker's present average pay is about $2.30 an hour.

Noted Climber Dies In Plunge On Canada Peak

TERRACE, B.C. (AP)—The death of one of Canada's foremost mountaineers in a fall while attempting to scale an unclimbed peak in northern British Columbia was reported last night.

Fellow climbers arrived here to tell of the death Sunday of Maj. Rex Gibson of Saanichton, B.C., president of the Alpine Club of Canada, in a fall 250 feet down a gully of 9,000-foot Mt. Howson, 40 miles east of here. Two others of a five-member climbing party also were injured in the fall.

Body Of Cafe Owner Found Stuffed In Trunk Of Auto

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Police in Wheeling, W. Va., and Pittsburgh were trying today to learn who killed a Wheeling cafe operator in gangland fashion by stuffing him into the trunk of his expensive auto.

The decomposed body of Nick Miller, 46, also known as Nick Vosovick, was found yesterday. His 1957 $6,000 car was parked on a residential street in Wilkesburg, 10 miles from midtown Pittsburgh.

Miller, who had a long string of gambling arrests and who had served time in Ohio and West Virginia, was last seen Saturday night when he left his wife and

Dulles Lauded For Lifting Ban On Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles won commendation in Congress today for his decision to permit 24 American newsmen to report from inside Red China.

Dulles' action yesterday allowing these newsmen to be stationed there on a six-month trial basis points to an end of an eight-year blackout on direct reporting by Americans from the China mainland.

Spokesmen for groups in the newspaper field said Dulles' move was a step in the right direction—but that it ought to go further.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) called it "a long overdue but welcome retreat from an untenable position."

"If Red China will permit American newsmen to observe and report on happenings on the mainland, this could very well be the lifting of the Iron Curtain," Humphrey told newsmen.

"This could bring profound political repercussions. The next step might well be the release of American prisoners and a final settlement of the Korean War."

Store Sales Higher

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Federal Reserve Board said today that U. S. department store sales in the week ended Aug. 17 were four per cent above the corresponding week last year.

Senate Vote Set On Pay Hikes
GOP Leaders See Ike Veto If Bills Are Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—An under-the-surface tussle is going on in the Senate over two bills to raise salaries of federal employees 850 million dollars a year.

Senate leaders were reported ready today to call both bills up for a floor vote, probably early next week. The House has passed both by overwhelming margins.

However, Republican leaders have made it plain they expect President Eisenhower to veto the two bills. It seems likely the Senate, at least, would sustain vetoes if Congress still is around to act on them.

The more likely outcome is that the session will end shortly after the measures go to the White House and Eisenhower can pocket them. He took this course with federal pay legislation in 1954.

Test Bombs Set Off By Soviet, U. S.

Yucca Flat Blast Of 'Doppler' Device Seen In Las Vegas

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The 13th atomic blast of the United States' 1957 atomic test series lashed across the Nevada desert before dawn today.

The blast—code named "Doppler"—exploded at 5:30 a. m. (PDT) with a flash plainly visible in Las Vegas, some 80 miles southeast.

A blood-red fireball appeared in the dark sky as the device was detonated from a balloon anchored 1,500 feet above the Yucca Flat test site.

Termed 'Half-Nominal' The fireball spread and then faded, with a mushroom cloud rising swiftly. As it rose, the rays of the rising sun lit the ballooning cloud, turning it a snowy white.

The device triggered today was termed about "half-nominal"—half the World War II type bomb.

Newsmen were not allowed on test site itself for today's blast. They watched the test from a peak 45 miles distant.

'Substantial Power' Bomb Fired By Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has resumed atomic tests with a blast of "substantial" power yesterday, the Atomic Energy Commission announced today.

A brief announcement from AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss said:

"The Soviet Union has resumed testing of nuclear weapons at its Siberian proving grounds. A detonation of substantial size took place on Aug. 22."

The development comes in the midst of Soviet maneuvers in the London disarmament conference with the ostensible aim of cutting off all nuclear tests.

The United States, while offering to call off tests for two years, is insisting on safeguards which the Russians reject.

The last previous AEC announcement of a Soviet nuclear weapon test came April 18.

That blast was described as "one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series." Strauss said it was the fifth in a series which began April 13. It was the 11th reported by the AEC since last August.

Altogether, including today's announcement, the AEC has reported 24 Russian nuclear test explosions. Strauss, however, has made it clear that not all of those detected are reported. He says they are announced only when there are circumstances of special interest.

In general, those circumstances appear to consist of the outline of a test series or blasts of unusual power. Today's announcement appeared to fall in the series category since there was nothing beyond the word "substantial" to indicate extraordinary power.

U. S. Sets Off No. 13

The United States itself is in the midst of a test series at the AEC proving ground in Nevada.

The 13th in that series—the 58th set off at the Nevada test site over the years—was exploded less than an hour after the announcement of the Soviet explosion.

The explosions in the U. S. series have been of varying power, obviously testing devices for differing applications.

Major U. S. tests on high-yield hydrogen weapons are held at proving grounds in the Pacific.

Army Officer Will Testify In GI Deaths

FT. SILL, Okla. (AP)—Lt. Col. Walter P. Berger, charged with four counts of negligent homicide in the training exercise deaths of four soldiers here June 22, was scheduled to testify in his own defense today.

Berger's defense counsel said that three other witnesses also would be called. The prosecution rested yesterday after presenting testimony that:

1. Berger questioned a cease-fire order given by Lt. Col. Walter Short, commander of the firing demonstration.

2. Short ordered Berger to make sure 4.2-inch mortars were aimed at the correct target before resuming fire.

3. Berger checked twice with the fire direction center before ordering the firing resumed.

The shells landed among members of an infantry company staging a mock attack on a hillside position.

Short testified that he ordered the first cease-fire when he saw what he thought were mortar shells falling short of their target.

Maj. Robert O. Phillips, overall control officer for the exercise, later testified that Berger, who was Short's assistant, questioned the order. Phillips said he told Berger, whom he held responsible for all artillery activity in the exercise, to check with Short by telephone.

Fair Weather Seen In East

By The Associated Press

More pleasant weather was the outlook today for broad areas east of the Mississippi River and in the Far West but rain clouds hovered over other sections of the country.

Thunderstorms extended from the upper Mississippi Valley southwestward into the central Plains during the night, with some areas hit by severe storms. A few funnel clouds were reported in the Sioux Falls, S.D., area, which was hit by an inch of rain. Tornado winds lashed the North Platte, Neb., district.

Fair weather prevailed in most areas from the southern Plains to the Great Lakes region and eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Poles Defect During Visit

COPENHAGEN (AP)—A holiday expedition by about 800 Poles cost Communist Poland at least 30 defections today as the liner Batory sailed home without the refugees.

The Batory sailed for Gdynia without incident after the two-day visit, the first such tour of Denmark by a Polish group since World War II.

Infant Buried Alive For 18 Hours Saved

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A week-old boy was reported recovering today from exposure and a slight lung infection suffered while buried 18 hours in a shallow back yard grave.

Coroner E. R. May said the infant was buried Tuesday by his Negro grandmother, Mrs. Pinkie Barksdale, behind the Barksdale home in an isolated rural section about 12 miles north of Lincoln, Ga.

Sheriff W. A. Hammond said the grandmother's brother reported the burial to him and he conducted an investigation.

The sheriff said he was assured by the grandmother that the child was dead and said he would return the next day to open the grave.

When he came back he said Mrs. Barksdale told him she heard a crying sound Wednesday and dug up the casket, a wooden box about 12 inches deep. The sheriff said he did not plan to file any charges at present.

U.S. Youth Group Reaches Peiping

LONDON (AP)—Forty-one young Americans were almost mobbed by cheering Chinese youths when they arrived in Peiping today, the British news agency Reuters reported from the Red capital.

The Americans were among visitors at the Communist-organized World Youth Festival in Moscow and went on to Red China at the invitation of the Peiping government despite a U. S. State Department ban on travel there.

GOP Offers Civil Rights Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republicans stood by today with their new civil rights compromise plan while Democrats pondered strategy.

Many members of Congress want an end to the impasse so they can go home. Some legislators already have left.

Rep. Keating (R-N.Y.), a leader of GOP civil rights forces, said he expects the Democrats "will give us some word" today on the Republican compromise, put forward Wednesday with President Eisenhower's endorsement.

But Keating, in an interview, would not predict the Democrats' course of action. Nor was Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) tipping his hand.

The civil rights bill passed by the Senate Aug. 7, now is stuck in the 12-man House Rules Committee. Chairman Howard Smith (D-Va.), a strong opponent of civil rights legislation, has refused to call a meeting of the group to act on the measure. A majority vote of the group's members is needed to call a meeting over Smith's opposition.

Rep. Bolling (D-Mo.) said he has the support of five other committee Democrats in a move to force a meeting, but this still would not be a majority. The four Republicans on the rules group refused to go along with Bolling's move at this time.

Two Men Given Death Sentence In Cafe Murder

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two men were sentenced to death and a third to life in prison yesterday for murder at the Club Mecca.

Six persons died last April 4 when the neighborhood tavern suddenly erupted in flames. Trial evidence showed two of the men slashed a can of gasoline into the place and set it afire. They had been thrown out earlier because of unwelcome attentions to a woman customer.

Clyde Bates, 36-year-old former convict, and Manuel Chavez, 25, were sentenced to death. Manuel J. Hernandez, 18, who drove the getaway car, drew the life term.

Youth Killed After Plunge Into Abandoned Gold Mine

TIMMINS, Ont. (AP)—Rescuers this morning uncovered the body of 15-year-old Ronnie Blakemore from a mass of debris wedged part way down a 1,400-foot mine shaft.

The body was found about 10 feet below the level where 16-year-old Bonard Scholes was rescued last night. The boys fell into the shaft while dropping stones to hear the echoes. Three other teenagers scrambled to safety when timbers covering the hole collapsed.

The shaft, with 30 feet of water at its bottom, was blocked with earth, stones and rotted shoring.

Solons Told Of Dealings In New York

Racketeer Facing Prison Term For Shakedown Plot

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa told Senate racketeers today he has agreed to "look out for" the family of racketeer Johnny Dio, if Dio goes to prison.

Hoffa said he agreed last month to help Mrs. Dio and her two children if she needs help.

Dio now is in Tombs Prison in New York, awaiting sentence on a shakedown conspiracy conviction. He is also under indictment in connection with the acid blinding of labor writer Victor Riesel, and faces charges of income tax violations.

Could Get 20 Years If convicted on the income tax charges, the 43-year-old Dio could get a sentence up to 20 years.

Hoffa acknowledged yesterday that in 1953 he had had dealings with Dio about organizing New York taxi drivers. But he insisted he did not know then that Dio had a record of alleged antiunion shakedowns.

Under further questioning today, Hoffa said he still has a friendly relationship with the racketeer and told of the promise to look out for Mrs. Dio.

Still pleading a faulty memory, Hoffa repeatedly told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee he can't recall whether he had business dealings with Dio.

Fencing with committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy, he added: "I don't know what you mean by business."

Hoffa acknowledged that he did help to arrange two or three years ago for Dio to demonstrate to the Teamsters Union and some truck line operators in Chicago a two-way radio device.

Hoffa said Dio was then an official of the Link Radio Co. in New York, but said he wouldn't call that a business transaction.

Hoffa said he also has an option on some Florida real estate, known as Sun Valley, and that Dio bought lots there, but that he didn't consider that a business transaction, either.

It was the fourth day in the witness chair for Hoffa, Midwest head of the Teamsters Union, a 1½-million member organization, largest union in the nation.

Says Alliance Formed

Committee Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) charged that Hoffa formed an alliance with Dio. He contends Hoffa's goal was struggle-hold power over union affairs on the Eastern Seaboard, and that Dio was to profit from shakedowns and raiding the dues of union members.

The committee has heard that union locals in New York were staffed by Dio's henchmen, that the locals had no members except some provided later by Dio, but that they did command enough votes to give a Hoffa-backed candidate an important New York Teamster post last year.

Integration Plan Pressed In N. Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Supt. of Schools William Jansen says definite progress is being made in integrating New York City schools.

Jansen said yesterday after an executive session of the Board of Education that the school system is "meeting some disappointments and expected difficulties."

He said these included financial problems, the problem of staffing difficult schools and the problems created by public misunderstanding of the board's integration program.

U.S. Newsmen Ask Visas To Enter Red Territory

HONG KONG—American correspondents granted U. S. permission to work in Red China today renewed visa applications in telegrams to Peiping. They had been told earlier the visas would be granted.

King Peng, information chief of the Communist Chinese Foreign Ministry, advised Americans here last month that visas would be approved as soon as the U. S. State Department granted clearance.

The Red China travel service said at noon today it had no word from the Communist capital on granting visas to the six Americans already waiting here to enter China. The service will handle travel arrangements for the reporters.

Secretary of State Dulles announced in Washington yesterday that the State Department ban on travel in Red China had been lowered to permit one correspondent from each of 24 news organizations to go to the Red China.

Six American reporters waiting here encountered delay at the U. S. consulate, which said it had not received instructions from Washington. American passports now are stamped invalid for travel in Red China and the 23 passports belonging to correspondents will presumably be changed.

A majority of the newsmen re-applied for visas a month ago when the State Department indicated it might lift the ban. The visas must be renewed from month to month.

Bill Offered To Have Graduates Serve Longer

WASHINGTON—A bill to require graduates of service academies to serve at least 10 years on active duty was introduced yesterday by Rep. Gross (R-Iowa).

"It seems to me that after the government invests some $40,000 in the education of a young man in one of the service academies," Gross said, "the individual should be required to serve a longer period on active duty than is now the case."

Solons Told

Hoffa is expected to be elected president of the Teamsters Union next month.

Hoffa yesterday heard more recordings of his telephone conversations with Dio. These conversations were secretly wiretapped by the New York police, acting under court order. In one such phone talk, Hoffa assured racketeer Dio a free field—without competition from the Teamsters Union—to recruit 30,000 New York taxi drivers into a Dio-run local of the old AFL United Auto Workers union.

This was in May 1953, and the committee's chief counsel, Robert F. Kennedy, said it was just after Dio's indictment involving charges he received $11,000 to block the unionization of a plant in Allentown, Pa. Kennedy said the charge was that Dio accepted the $11,000 from the employer involved, but did not include it on his income tax reports. The council said the story of the indictment was printed in newspapers at the time.

Solons Divided On Washington Home Rule Bill

WASHINGTON—The Senate District Committee cannot reach agreement on home rule legislation for Washington, Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) reported.

He suggested yesterday that a charter commission be formed to draw up a new self government plan.

The committee is divided over a bill prepared by the District commissioners which would set up a territorial form of government with the governor appointed by the president. The commissioners drew up the bill to meet specifications set by President Eisenhower.

Clark said that while he favors an elected mayor, he would have accepted the commissioners' views in an effort to get the bill passed. But he said Sens. Neely (D-WVa.), chairman of the Senate District Committee, and Morse (D-Ore.), a committee member, were adamant in opposing the bill.

A home rule bill with an elected mayor would have little chance of passage with the president supporting an appointed governor, Clark said.

Big Bus Stolen In Pittsburgh, Wrecks In Park

PITTSBURGH—A stolen Greyhound bus careened wildly through a portion of Schenley Park last night and plunged more than 100 feet down a ravine within sight of Forbes Field.

The vehicle ripped out huge trees in its plunge to a bridge path near a park swimming pool. It was halted by a concrete culvert, preventing a further drop down the ravine.

Police said there was no trace of the person who stole it and no indication anyone had been injured.

Fire In Tunnel Traps Workmen

PITTSBURGH—A fire set off by an electric motor blocked a tunnel entrance today and trapped nine workmen 100 feet underground in a sewer project in Pittsburgh.

Supervisors on the job said the nine men did not appear to be in any immediate danger. The supervisors ordered extra oxygen pumped in.

The tunnel, in downtown Pittsburgh, is part of a sewage project.

Coal Production Drop Estimated

WASHINGTON—The National Coal Assn. today estimated bituminous production for the week ended Aug. 17 as approximately 9,995,000 tons.

Production for the corresponding period in 1956 was 9,758,000 tons and for the week ended Aug. 10 totaled 9,690,000 tons.

Production for the Jan. 1-Aug. 17 period was estimated at 308,696,000 tons against 309,000,000 tons a year ago.

GLEN BURNIE, Md.—Anne Arundel County police picked up a 26-year-old mailman today a few hours after a young mother said she was raped by a man who entered her Arundel Hills home.

Police said that on the basis of a pencil found on the woman's bed they picked up a Glen Burnie mail carrier and held him for questioning.

Asiatic Flu Seen Striking Millions In United States

WASHINGTON—Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney estimates that an epidemic of Asiatic flu this fall or winter might strike between 13 million and 26 million Americans.

In an interview yesterday, Burney said he figured that many might be stricken in event of an epidemic, even if a newly developed vaccine is widely employed. About 60 million doses of the vaccine are expected to be available by Feb. 1. But the Public Health Service estimates the vaccine will be only about 70 per cent effective.

Burney said the outbreaks which have occurred in the United States so far have been mild, with few deaths, and "there is no reason to believe it will change."

The PHS announced yesterday that a new technique for diagnosis of Asiatic and other types of influenza has been developed. A spokesman said that technique might cut from six days to two days the time required to pinpoint the disease.

He added the time saved might be valuable in determining more rapidly whether an outbreak in a specific area had reached epidemic proportions.

Sector Calm In Levittown Race Dispute

LEVITTOWN, Pa.—For the second straight night, after more than a week of after-dark demonstrations against the coming of the first Negro family into this big new housing project, Levittown's Dogwood Hollow section was calm last night.

State police remained on patrol and two orders were strictly enforced: no more outdoor meetings of protest or other large gatherings; and for the time being no visitors to enter the area.

Maj. William Ruch, in charge of the state police detail, said his men will remain as long as the authorities consider it necessary.

Crowds up to 500 gathered in front of the home owned by William Myers Jr. for eight nights in a row. Stones were hurled at the Myers house and two picture windows broken. A number of persons were arrested.

On Tuesday night a Bristol Township policeman was felled by a rock thrown from a crowd.

Myers and his wife, at a news conference, told reporters that an assistant district attorney of Bucks County had offered to buy their home for $15,000. Myers said he paid $12,000 for it. He said he refused the offer.

French Actress Disputes Story In 'Confidential'

LOS ANGELES—French actress Corinne Calvet may be the first "big name" to testify in the Confidential magazine libel trial, which resumes today.

The defense has said it plans to call Miss Calvet as a witness after Fred Meade, who with his wife operated Hollywood Research, Inc., leaves the stand.

Miss Calvet was the subject of a Confidential story which she says is "absolutely untrue."

During the trial's one-day recess yesterday two more subjects of Confidential stories made emphatic denials. They are actress Mae West and Mrs. Josephine Dillon, Clark Gable's first wife.

Admitted to the hospital in serious condition was S.3.C. Robert H. Bass, 20, Kensington, Montgomery County, Md.

The driver of the car, Leroy C. Corcoran, 22, Bethesda, suffered face and body cuts.

Nasser To Get Note From Saud On Syria

CAIRO—(INS)—Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser was expected today to receive an "important" message today from King Saud of Saudi Arabia concerning the Syrian situation.

The three men, serving in the heavy mortar company of the 115th Infantry, were in summer training with the 29th National Guard Division at Indiantown Gap.

State Police said the accident occurred on US 22, a quarter mile east of the Lebanon-Dauphin County line. The truck driver was uninjured.

Tax Group Hears Case Of Assessor

Montgomery County Suspended Man For 'Disrupting Morale'

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Tax Commission was to hear Henry H. Carter's defense today, in its hearing for the suspended Montgomery County assessor.

Carter, suspended last July by State Assessments Supervisor Wilbur T. Allen, is charged specifically with insubordination, unbecoming conduct, and disrupting morale in the county's department of assessments.

The case began last March when Carter by-passed his boss and wrote a letter to the Montgomery County manager, Melvin L. Reese. The letter made sweeping charges of assessments being discriminatory in the county's Potomac District.

Reese said investigation showed the charges to be without foundation, and Carter was suspended. The letter, introduced as evidence at yesterday's opening session, charged that some property assessments were cut to influence passage of a legislative bill raising assessors' salaries.

Carter's letter said "definite statements (were) made by assessors in office that very large cuts (were) made to owners of commercial property represented by lawyers in position to favor (the) salary bill for assessors." The bill was passed by the 1957 General Assembly and Gov. McKeelin signed it into law April 10.

SRC To Get Report On Bridge Tolls

BALTIMORE (AP)—The report on the advisability of lowering Chesapeake Bridge tolls will be made public Sept. 4 when the State Roads Commission submits it to the Legislative Council.

SRC Chairman Robert O. Bonnell made the announcement today. The commission has been studying the report by the firm of Coverdale and Colpitts of New York for several weeks.

The study was taken after the last General Assembly passed a resolution calling for a new look at the toll price situation, in the face of unexpectedly heavy use of the span.

It now costs $1.40 for a car and driver to cross the bridge each way. There is an additional charge of 25 cents for each passenger.

Several state legislators have been clamoring for a reduction in the tolls.

65 Septic Tanks Installed Here

A total of 65 septic tanks were installed during July under the supervision of the Allegany County Health Department.

J. B. Dowling, chief sanitarian, said the installations are up about 20 and reflect the building activity under way throughout the county.

Members of the Sanitation section made 156 calls to dairy plants and milk producing farms in connection with a Cumberland milkshed survey.

Visits to food establishments totaled 102 during the month. Collected for testing were 199 water and 63 milk samples and 18 swab tests were made of equipment in eating establishments.

The waters of the Nile were first used for irrigation about 4,000 B. C.

Some Urged To Receive 'Flu' 'Shots'

Hospital Personnel Among Those Advised To Take Inoculations

BALTIMORE (AP)—A special committee is urging prompt inoculation against Asiatic influenza for Marylanders in jobs with maximum exposure.

The announcement today came from a special committee appointed early last month by the State Health Department to advise on policy and control measures in event of an outbreak in Maryland. It is headed by Dr. Theodore E. Woodward, professor of medicine at the University of Maryland.

The committee put particular emphasis on inoculation for "essential personnel, such as those in hospitals, and of groups of chronically ill or aged persons living under crowded conditions which favor infection."

A spokesman said the State Health Department would have no direct role in acquiring the vaccine being produced by six companies in the country. Thus, the statement amounted to a recommendation that private physicians, company doctors and hospital directors take the lead in offering the vaccine.

OUR COUNTRY
The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union for ever.—Morris.

"Let's Have It"

TEMPORARILY, at least, the pressing problems of financing the great growth of America's elementary and secondary schools have been left to the states and cities. The widely held view that they can manage the matter will now be tested. Hard on the heels of this difficulty, however, comes the question of how to keep pace with the vastly expanding college population in America. In its recent report, the President's committee on higher education forecast a doubling of college enrollments by 1970 to some six million students. The obvious question: Where will they find a place?

PRESENT colleges and universities could not possibly accommodate them. And the nation has only 13 years to make ready for this engulfing tide. When one realizes how long America's existing college "plant" has been building, he can gain some idea of the problem's size. Unless hundreds of thousands of young Americans are to be deprived of the college training they need and want more and more, the country must plan now for their storming of the college gates. Mr. Eisenhower's committee has some useful suggestions: Faculty salaries need to be hiked up to 80 per cent to attract teachers in sufficient number and quality to bear the rising load.

STUDENTS—or their parents—should get marked help in meeting the expenses of schooling. This could include tax deductions for school outlays, and more credit facilities for students. Congress ought to encourage bigger financial contributions from private sources by making the tax laws on the subject more favorable. And it could well continue college housing loans and other existing educational aids. Except for these last proposals, though, the group does not grapple hard with the fundamental matter: Who is to provide the money for so huge an expansion of the country's college establishment? Clearly, digging up such sums can't be left to chance, or the high level training of countless young Americans may be a dream unfulfilled. If to get a sensible financing plan means another tour of duty for the President's committee, then most citizens would say: "Let's have it."

Whose Policy?

IN THE VIEW of high U. S. officials, genuine mystery has begun to surround the question of who is making vital Soviet policy. The belief is widespread that the designer is not Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss. He has been guilty of many errors and may well be in danger of losing his job. Much is done in the name of Marshal Zhukov, who helped Khrushchev beat down his rivals recently. Yet those close to big events say the marshal displays little real knowledge of some matters advanced by his efforts. Is there one single brain behind these men? Mikoyan? Marshal Konev? Or is there some sort of high strategy board which functions no matter where the ostensible head man may be? One man in Washington thinks too much rapid skillful work is being done in Moscow for it to be the labor of just one man. We are in a new phase. We still see the faces in the traditional Kremlin picture gallery. But we can no longer tell by their places in the lineup which faces are most important. We suspect that the real policymakers may have in fact become invisible.

Mary's Kitten

MARY IS A sweet little three-year-old with a blond pony tail. Mary has a soft, grey kitten that she loves very much. And Mary, it must be noted, treats her kitten abominably. She lifts the kitten by its tail; she goes about clutching her pet in what threatens to be quite literally a death grip. Mary rumples the kitten and strokes its fur the wrong way, and hugs it with the lethal ardor of the very young. Thus far, the kitten has survived. Mary, as we said, is a sweet little girl. The trouble is that her mother has never taken pains to instruct her in the difference between a rag doll and a living creature. As a result, the grey kitten is suffering tortures no less real because they are unintentional, and Mary may be badly scratched one of these days. It all adds up to an axiom: Young children should not have pets until they have been taught to handle them with the care due one of God's living creatures.

Ike Caught In Trap Set by His Own Party

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's disillusionment as he finds his influence with Congress dwindling, his authority in his party diminishing and things generally going awry has a simpler explanation than some of the analyses now being made. It goes back to his own party before he joined it, back to the 80th Republican Congress, and to something his party put over out of spleen over the long reign of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

At that time voices were raised to point out how the Presidency would be weakened by a specific limitation to two terms. But Republicans, under the leadership of Representative Joe Martin of Massachusetts, then Speaker of the House, jammed through that first Republican Congress in 16 years the 22nd Amendment to the Constitution, fixing that limitation. Ratification was completed in less than four years, on February 26, 1951.

It did not apply to Harry Truman, who was President when it was submitted, but he stepped down anyhow.

IT WAS LEFT to President Eisenhower, to whom it first became applicable, to feel authority begin to slip away when he started his second term last January as members of his own party, as well as Democrats who had feared his hero standing with the people, stiffened their resistance.

No longer need Democrats fear him, and from now on Republicans could concentrate on their own futures and ambitions. Politically, he was through.

This was exemplified dramatically when his party leader in the Senate, William F. Knowland of California, took the first step in his own campaign for the 1960 Republican Presidential nomination without even waiting for

Coming Lead-Zinc Tax Arouses Canada

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Assuming that you know all about the civil rights debate, that you comprehend the problems that new U. S. Ambassador Maxwell Gluck faces in Ceylon and that you fathom Johnny Dio's "paper locals," you are now emotionally conditioned to mull over a proposed new tax on lead and zinc.

But just in case the hot pennant race in the National League has diverted you from Washington's issues this summer, a look at this lead and zinc thing is still worth the effort.

The proposed tax involves another boost to the inflation spiral. It has Canadians hopping mad at the Administration. Opponents of it say it can damage America's trade relations around the world and can hurt other U. S. firms trying to do business abroad.

The aim of this proposed tax,

President Eisenhower to take the oath of office for his second term.

Knowland's announcement was generally interpreted to mean that he would run for Governor of his state next year as a means of getting control of California's delegation to the 1960 Republican convention. This was a head start to try to beat out other aspirants for the 1960 nomination, including his fellow Californian, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

BEFORE OUR eyes now we can see the evidence of the disintegration of the President's power under the pressure of political interests of his party leaders. We need take only two current examples.

First is one in which the President is vitally interested—an adequate foreign aid appropriation. What happens? He finally had to call in the Democratic speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn, to make a personal plea to try to hold enough Democratic votes to make up for Republican defections.

Second is civil rights. The President, it is true, is interested in an adequate bill, though his interest was not deep enough to entice him to read the bill carefully until weeks after it started through Congress.

BUT IT IS obvious that, because of their own personal political interests and those of the party, Republican leaders in the House and Senate made their stand for a better bill than the badly mutilated measure that came from the Senate. It was not because of the President.

It is clear that Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., an experienced and skillful politician, and party leaders at the capital have been pushing the President to a more firm stand, rather than the other way around.

But the President's present dilemma is due to other influences beyond the debilitating effect of the two-term limitation.

His vacillation on major issues facing him since his second term began — budget, civil rights, school construction, among others — again spotlights the fact that his unfamiliarity with domestic problems when he assumed the Presidency, and his consequent lack of interest and of strong convictions about them, has persisted.

It is also apparent that he never has come to like his job as President to the point where he would buckle down to it with the joy and devotion of one who has grown up in politics and statecraft and loves it.

IN A WAY, HE is a victim. Strewed leaders of the Republican party, which had been out of power for 20 years, and powerful economic interests which support the party said that something new was needed to attract the public. The party could not win over the people on its own.

The ideal solution was a war hero, a household name, not previously identified with politics, if he only could be persuaded to lend himself to their plans. He could. Few ever have been able to withstand such an invitation.

He became a front—and has remained that for many purposes. The big interests which sponsored him were unable to get everything they wanted in his first Administration. They must win again. So, despite two illnesses that had incapacitated him for some time, they were able to persuade him to run again.

Now he has served his purpose. We are witnessing a major tragedy in American politics.

(United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

which Congress is being urged to pass before adjournment, is to stabilize the price of lead at between 16 and 17 cents per pound and the price of zinc at around 13½ cents per pound.

THIS IS TO be achieved by a tax on imports of these metals when the domestic prices of them begin to drop below certain points. It's a complicated formula but the effect is to protect U. S. lead and zinc producers against the competition of foreign suppliers.

Lead and zinc producers in the U. S. are having trouble now, and appear to be headed for more. They apparently need help and almost everyone is willing to give some to them. But the big question is whether this proposed tax is the proper way to render aid.

Canada's feeling about the proposed tax is probably the most important immediate foreign relations aspect of it. But Canada's feeling is also typical of the way the rest of the countries doing business with the U. S. will react.

Canada sells the U. S. about 80 million dollars' worth of these two metals per year. Imposition of the proposed tax would probably make a serious cut in this figure. And that's what makes Canada furious.

LAST YEAR Canadians suffered a 1.3-billion-dollar trade imbalance with the U. S. In other words they spent that much more in the U. S. than U. S. citizens spent for Canadian goods and services.

This imbalance has resulted in serious economic headaches to Canada, which will be aggravated by this zinc and lead tax. Naturally they resent any action by the U. S. Congress which will make this problem worse.

"It's just the old bitter story of the U. S. not giving a hang about Canada when it's a question of doing something for some local, special-interest group in the States," a Canadian businessman has complained to the U. S. State Department.

Mexico, Peru and Australia also sell lead and zinc to the U. S. An economist testifying against the measure before Congress explained its inflationary impact.

"Uses of these metals range from zinc die castings in automobiles, lead in batteries, in gasoline, in cable coverings, in collapsible tubes, in plumbing equipment, to zinc galvanizing of steel, to zinc in brass and bronze, to lead in paint and in typography. Additional costs to ultimate consumers and the contribution to general inflation of the proposal are practically incalculable."

Glancing Sideways

VALLE DE BRAVO, Mex.—The Indian boy came down about breakfast time and after making certain that the topics of health, weather, family and peace of mind had been carefully asked after and exhausted, he got a shy look. He studied the sky, the ground and the tops of trees. We finally said, as a quiet, unburied question, did he have something direct on his mind.

"I have heard your lady mention admiration for exceptional homes," he said. "If your car is brassy enough, I would like to show her and you a hidden palace that cost a Frenchman three million pesos. It is three years old and formidably beautiful."

SO WE WENT right after breakfast. If Plymouth wants a change in its ad routines, I can furnish one. It was brassy enough—the road was a car-killer, a mangle. We went exactly 10 miles up and into the mountains to a sudden, broad sweep of high meadow covering about 50 acres.

At a point near the top of the slope, where two peaks came together, nestled the house. It was formidable. From the house you could look through wide sheets of crystal across 100 miles of ranges, valleys, old volcanoes and crimson-topped little towns snuggled in minute valleys.

It was intensely modern. Broad, flat-ceilinged rooms, each with a lake of perfect glass for a front wall. The roof was red tiles in a deep warm tone.

THE HOUSE was on two levels, with the main part above and, below, a roofed terrace, between two wings. In back of the terrace were, for each of the sexes, one dressing room, one resting room, one steam-room, one hot shower room, one cold, icy shower room and one massage room.

The terrace looked out on a swimming pool designed in free form, electrically heated, of

Tale Of Two Tender Truckers

WASHINGTON — This Jimmy Hoffa is a persuasive little guy. The way he tells it, there's nothing wrong for a maidly matron, namely his wife, to rent out trucks for hauling Cadillacs.

There's still nothing wrong about it, said Vice-President Jimmy of the Teamsters Union, even though the trucks are driven by his own members. He added, furthermore, that by having the matronly maiden in the trucking business, he learned how much money could be made from it and this was a benefit to his membership.

HOFFA TURNED out to be a dapper citizen, clad in a stub-size summer suit of an iridescent weave, which looked black under one kind of a light and molasses color under another. With this he wore a pompadour slicked down and a solid chocolate cravat.

So he sat there in front of the Senators investigating racketeers in labor, with his attaché case at his side, but somehow he didn't look like a diplomat. Didn't sound like one, either.

The way Hoffa told it, the wives of himself and his partner, Bert Brenner, were financial geniuses. The ladies—put up $40,000 for the stock in Test Fleet, Inc., which they held under their maiden names, in case — said Jimmy — of lawsuits.

THEN THESE foxy females borrowed $50,000 from a St. Louis bank and bought a fleet of nine of those long, clanky trucks used to haul automobiles. The trucks they put up as collateral to the bank.

The ladies rented these machines to Commercial Carriers, Inc., which hauled only Cadillacs, because they were heaviest and, hence, paid best.

Committee counsel Robert Kennedy wondered how much the two wives had earned from this little enterprise. Hoffa said he didn't know.

"Wouldn't your wife tell you?" inquired counselor Kennedy.

Jimmy growled; he said he didn't have the figures handy. Kennedy said, well, he did.

"Read 'em off, brother," said Jimmy.

THIS KENNEDY did. His list indicated that the ladies in six years made profits of $125,000.

Trade Policy said this about the measure: "It will not only open up the floodgates to appeals from all industries in a similar situation, but will in effect repudiate the long established and oft renewed trade agreements and the basic trade policies contained therein which have been followed for so many years."

If the measure is passed, U. S. trade agreements with other countries will force the government to make compensatory arrangements. This will mean that other U. S. industries will be made to suffer at the expense of the lead and zinc firms.

The proposal to help the lead and zinc people which has most acceptance — the one to give outright government aid to them. Sometimes these direct aids from the U. S. Treasury turn out to be cheaper in the long run.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—Frank Tallman is a young flier with a soaring ambition—he wants to create a museum in the sky.

If you have an abandoned elderly airplane in your backyard, call Tallman. Thousands today collect antique autos. Tallman is a pioneer in a newer and limited field — the preservation of antique airplanes.

He is a leader in the small but growing number of enthusiasts who seek to salvage for posterity the remaining winged remnants of the early air age.

But the airplanes he finds and rebuilds aren't destined, he hopes, for a dusty museum. He wants to put them back in the sky—at America's air shows—where they belong.

"I don't think it's quite enough to see the color and beauty of the past, unless it's out in the sunshine working," he explained.

FLYING LONG has been the main interest of Tallman, a slender 30-year-old man with a straw-colored mustache that makes him look like a British sergeant major. His father, a World War I naval pilot, let him take over the controls of a plane at five.

Since then Frank has logged more than 6,000 hours in more than 75 types of aircraft, ranging from 1910 Bleriot to flying boats, gliders, bombers and jets.

He was a Navy flier in the last war, has served as a test pilot, and is one of a comparative handful of U. S. airmen licensed to fly every type of plane.

But today his heart is with the relics of the days when the air was an opening ocean to man.

"I was in the tailend of the helmet and goggles era of the open biplane," he said. "And I believe the fun in flying was then—when you could see it, feel it, and smell it."

"The pleasure went out when they started putting on an oxygen mask, a hard hat, and an anti-gravity space suit—all worn in a pressurized cabin. When they took away the feel of the wind in your face, they took away most of the fun."

A YEAR AGO Frank made a hard choice—between a dream and a job. He quit a post as account executive for a broadcasting network and set out to assemble his flying museum.

He buttered his bread by stunt flying for Hollywood, and by going to England to assemble a portfolio of portraits of vintage World War I war birds.

So far Tallman has collected only nine obsolete planes — the 1910 Bleriot is his earliest, a Grumman Wildcat his latest—but at that his collection is one of the world's largest.

"The old planes disappear quickly," he remarked. "Do you know that of all the thousands of Spitfires built in the last war, only two are left in the British Isles? At least that is all I could locate there. Yet this is the plane that saved England."

Prize of his collection is a 1917 Sopwith Camel, the Spitfire of the World War I.

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON — Being an historian of sorts, I deem it within my purview to check up from time to time on Robert E. Lee. This being the case, I invaded the Federal Communications Commission the other day and almost startled a pretty young receptionist out of her bureaucratic wits by following: "Stand aside, fair damsel! I want to go in and see what's new with Robert E. Lee!"

I found out that, although he has now been dwelling in our dreamy little southern town for high on to four years, Robert E. Lee is still an unreconstructed northerner, and a Republican to boot. It's that's the way you care to treat Republicans.

Possibly you, with your carelessness for historical detail, are not aware that Robert E. Lee is the son of an Irish cop named Patrick Lee, who immigrated from County Galway in 1893 and served on the Chicago police force for 35 years. The copper's son, has an equally notable background. Robert E. Lee was an accountant for the FBI and once helped train Donald Duck.

TO AVOID ANY possible misapprehension, this Robert E. Lee is one of the seven federal communications commissioners who wield life and death powers over such passing fads as television and radio. He was appointed by President Eisenhower on Oct. 6, 1953, when he was 42.

Before becoming a lordly FCC commissioner, his principal job was schoolteaching at the FBI. Director J. Edgar Hoover put him in charge of training new agents who were to be assigned to accounting. One of his final duties was to take a new recruit to the FBI academy at Quantico, Va., and turn him over to the firing range instructor.

He held out his hand to the instructor and said: "I am Robert E. Lee, and this is Donald Duck. The instructor ignored the outstretched hand and replied nastily: "I am Felix the Cat."

Mr. Lee and Mr. Duck were giving their right names, but the shooting instructor was dissembling. His name, as Robert E. Lee and Donald Duck later established by employing the latest FBI investigative techniques, was not Felix the Cat.

COMMISSIONER Lee said the first FBI field office to which he was assigned was in the capital of Virginia.

"Some joker," he said, "thought it would be funny to send me to Richmond."

I asked Robert E. Lee if he was still getting much reaction from his name.

"Only from hotel clerks," he replied. "When I register 'Robert E. Lee and wife' they smile. I wonder why."

There is possibly one point that should be made clear. The middle name of General Robert E. Lee was "Edward"; the F.C.C. Commissioner's "Emmet." He was named after Robert Emmet, the Irish patriot.

"In this job I often feel I have much in common with Robert Emmet," said Robert Emmet Lee. "He was hanged."

HOMER JOSEPH Dodge the goateed mentor of the National Press Club, is inconsolable. He looked through the Congressional Directory the other day and was dismayed to find this entry under department of justice: "Office of Legal Counsel—Vacant."

Moans Mr. Dodge: "I find it completely unmanly to learn that the Department of Justice must struggle along without legal counsel."

Hoffa Steps Daily Over Booby Traps

Senate Rackets Probe To Have Effect On Future

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa—no matter what else happens to him—is not going to look like an unselfish, modest-living hero of American labor after the Senate Rackets Committee investigation.

His attitude toward the world seems to be: "They don't come too big for me." He sounded tough, cocky and forthright when—not knowing what he'd be hit with—he announced he'd answer the committee's questions.

It remains to be seen whether he also showed good sense. The chunky, 44-year-old Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters Union, is tough all right. But he's walking over ground full of bobby-traps.

Probe Thorough

This committee has done a digging job on him: into his financial dealings, his associations, his plans and ambitions. It even has wiretapped recordings of his telephone conversations. And he took an oath to tell the truth.

Hoffa is being asked a lot of questions covering years. He has a remarkable memory — sometimes. But any witness under oath who makes a misstep—by stating as fact what turns out not to be—can wind up charged with perjury.

He faces no such problem if he says he can't remember matters about which he's asked. After three days of watching Hoffa have memory trouble, Sen. Ives (R-NY) commented on Hoffa's "convenient forgettery."

Might Have Been Ruined

Yet if Hoffa had done what Dave Beck did—duck questions by taking the Fifth Amendment—he might have ruined 25 years of climbing up the union ladder to power just when the top prize is in sight.

Hoffa hopes to succeed the discredited Beck as president of the 1½-million-member Teamsters Union, biggest in the nation, at its September convention. Hoffa was bouncy Tuesday when he first faced the committee. After three days he looked strained.

The picture the committee is trying to paint of Hoffa is not pretty: a tieup with hoodlums and ex-convicts, led by Johnny Dio, and a drive to extend his power from the Midwest to control of New York Teamsters.

Beck Wrecked

Beck used the Fifth Amendment to avoid telling the same committee about his admitted use of hundreds of thousands of dollars in union funds. He wrecked himself as a union leader. Since then he has come under charges of larceny and income tax evasion.

But the committee brought out that Hoffa had borrowed $120,000—of which he says he still owes $70,000—from various sources, including subordinates among the Teamsters, and $21,000 from his own local in Detroit.

In 1956, Hoffa said, he borrowed $25,000 from Harold L. Mark, a Detroit real estate dealer, who in turn had borrowed it from a Detroit Teamster local run by a close pal of Hoffa.

No Bank Account

Most remarkable of all in Hoffa's financial dealings was his admission that until this year he never had a bank account but kept his money in a "safe place."

Chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy said some of those from whom Hoffa borrowed money—without interest or security—were men with long police records and some employers who dealt with Hoffa's union.

And when Kennedy asked if the members of his own local had been fully advised of his borrowing from it, Hoffa said he didn't know whether he had reported the transactions.

Gov. Underwood Visits State Fair

LEWISBURG, W. Va. (AP)—Gov. Cecil Underwood and a party of more than 25 state officials were part of another record crowd which attended yesterday's activities at the West Virginia State Fair.

The governor, Mrs. Underwood, and their daughter Cecilia occupied a reserved box for the long afternoon program of sultry races and vaudeville performances on the open-air stage.

Underwood brought greetings to the crowd briefly when he appeared with the winning horse in the Governor's Race, the feature of the afternoon's racing program.

The race was won by "Musketier," a brown gelding owned by G. M. Allen and E. McCullough, who happened to be old friends of the governor from Pennsboro. The horse was driven by J. Morgan.

The grandstand area, seating

5,000 persons, was sold out and other thousands milled about the vast area of exhibition halls and carnival midway.

Ross H. Tuckwiller of Lewisburg, president of the West Virginia Fair Assn., said that attendance today and on the preceding three days of fair week indicated that last year's record of 175,000 for the week would be exceeded. He noted that in order to accommodate the crowd, it has been

Writer Hits Fear Of Views Of Neighbors

Watch Tower Staff Member Says Factor Brings Unbalance

BALTIMORE (AP) — A member of the Watch Tower Society's editorial staff says "fear of what our neighbors think — one of the greatest unbalancing factors today — has made people slaves to conformity."

Howard Hilborn addressed the convention of Jehovah's Witnesses on the problem of applying Biblical principals to control emotions.

"Strong cleaving to simple Bible principles is more curative than all the psychiatric treatments that man can devise," Hilborn said.

"Emotions are a wonderful gift. However, emotions should not rule us, but should be governed by our minds."

He said anyone can analyze his emotional stature by honestly asking himself a few simple questions, such as:

"Am I influenced by pressure from the world, its opinions and ways?"

"Am I placing my social schedule ahead of my other responsibilities?"

"Do I view material things as an end to be gained, or as a means to gaining higher spiritual and moral values — such as a happier, more closely knit family and a better course of life as a Christian?"

"Does a busy social program crowd out my opportunity to sit down calmly and study God's word?"

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Bachelor wants a wife but can't get girls he loves to marry him.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am an unmarried man, thirty-three. World War II caught me at an early age; and at war's end I was discharged. After completing my education I was fortunate enough to get a good job locally and have advanced to a responsible post and a nice salary.

My problem is this: ever since the war, I've wanted to marry; and in 11 years of wife-hunting I've met three very nice girls to whom I've proposed.

I courted them at different times, of course, I fell deeply in love with each in turn. After getting interested, I would give them a whirlwind courtship. I would call them every day and ask them out every night, and at first everything went fine. Then they started making excuses not to see me some nights, and soon I was out entirely.

Seeks Insight, And/or Advice

To my marriage proposal, each made the same answer—I was like a brother, they would like to remain friends, but as for marriage: no.

After the second refusal I consulted a psychiatrist and was treated for about a year—for guilt feelings and an inferiority complex. The doctor thought I was pretty well cured. Then I met the third girl. I tried to surmount my complexes and things went fine for a while. But eventually I was turned down again.

The third blow really left me in a bad state of nerves and I went back to the doctor, who eventually restored my nerves somewhat. I had a blood sugar test and it was all right. At present I still love the third girl—but it's hopeless.

I feel very emotional much of the time (choked up) and have no confidence. Any advice or insight you can offer will be appreciated.—L. F.

Alpha-Omega Of His Problem

DEAR L. F.: In your letter, here condensed, you say: "Oh sure, I could have married several girls I met in a local bar. I did seriously consider it at one time, but couldn't go through with it."

The fact that a bar is your social refuge, the theater of your social exchange, between whirlwind campaigns for some nice girl's hand, indicates that you have no real social connections, such as gives a person desirability in the estimate of "choosy" people. Probably this is the alpha and omega of your problem.

By real social connections I mean family ties and bonds of tried-and-true friendship. I mean a lively exchange with parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, brothers, sisters, cousins, in-laws; also with assorted friends, accrued in school days, war years, business life and so on.

It is this kind of social "development"—of being enmeshed with many lives—that gives a person weight and worth in the human scene; that invests him or her with manifest value in the eyes of others, generally speaking.

We Are The Sum Of Relationships

And perhaps this is a sound principle of judgment, in assessing a person's present worth as a person—since psychiatry finds that individuals are pretty much the sum total of their human relationships. To the extent that they've been deprived of satisfactory meaningful relationships, they tend to be minus-personalities. The richer their fund of relationships, the "more of a person" they're apt to be.

As you may know, the distinguishing characteristic of Christianity, as different from other religions, is its emphasis on fellowship as the essence of vital living. "We are all members one of another," as St. Paul says (Or as theologians sense, the true believers in each generation constitute the "mystical body" of Christ on earth, continuing His redemptive work).

Thus it occurs to me that the direct solution of your need, the essential antidote to your loneliness, is to embrace the Christian way of fellowship.

By-pass the bar, join a church and invest yourself in its social projects. When you are interwoven with society that counts, in this manner, your whole orientation to girls will be happily different. Read "The Secret of Happiness" (Doubleday) by Billy Graham.—M. H.

Keyser Council Airs Purchase Of Parking Lots

KEYSER—Although no definite action was taken, Mayor Richard E. Romig and members of the City Council discussed the purchase of certain pieces of land in the business section of Keyser to be used as parking lots.

Taking cognizance of the serious traffic problem here and the lack of parking space, members of the Council said they saw no way to alleviate the condition except by the creation of parking lots.

The main problem, of course, is the lack of finances to purchase the lots. However, the Mayor and Council are seeking ways to raise money to buy the land, possibly through the issuance of revenue bonds.

Certain definite lots were discussed by the Council and it is understood the owners will be approached to see how much they want for them.

Archers Plan Novel Shoot

KEYSER — The Green Mountain Archers of Keyser will hold their first annual "Screwball Shoot" on Sunday, September 2. Prizes will be offered and registration will begin at 8 a. m.

Shooting will begin at 9 a. m. and continue until approximately 4 p. m. with one hour for lunch. Any person may enter who has the proper equipment (Bow and field or target arrows).

Such shoots as that planned for the local archery range, have proved very popular in many parts of the country, as well as entertaining for spectators.

The Green Mountain archery range is located a quarter of a mile south of Keyser on U.S. Route 220. The board handling this meet, advises that strangers seeking the range, go to the Keyser Airport and continue on same road for a quarter mile directly across the runway.

Spiny Club Palm

Puerto Rico's spiny club palm is a plant porcupine. Long, needle-like thorns extending from the trunk ward off land crabs and rats that might otherwise climb up and steal the palm's fruit, says the National Geographic Magazine.

Prospective Bride Feted

FROSTBURG — Miss Janet Blake, bride-elect of C. Allan Robison, was honored with a surprise bridal shower a recent evening by members of her bridal party, Misses Mary Francis De Luca, Kathryn Ann Stakem and Suzanne Shuck. The shower was held at the latter's home, 47 Broadway.

The refreshment table was centered with a flower arrangement of white hydrangeas and pink and salmon summer flowers. The cake was decorated with miniature wedding bells and pink rosebuds. An artificial bridal bouquet of pink and white candy was presented to the bride-elect as a favor. Mrs. Mary Arnold cut the cake and Miss De Luca and Miss Shuck assisted in serving the punch.

Games featured the entertainment and prizes were won by Mrs. Arnold and Miss Betsy Bampton.

Those attending the shower were Mrs. John Blake, Mrs. Samuel Martin, Miss Betty Lou Martin, Mrs. Alice Bahen, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Dora Shuck, Mrs. Nellie Shuck, Miss Kay Hargosh, Mrs. Sadie Yeager, Mrs. Delores Pugh, Mrs. Betty Croston, Miss Jean Nave, Miss Joann Tomlinson, Miss Mary LaPorta, and Miss Dorothy Elrick.

Miss Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blake, 163 East Mechanic Street, will become the bride of Mr. Robison, grandson of Mrs. Samuel Martin, 244 East Main Street, at a nuptial mass to be performed tomorrow in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

'War' Declared On Mosquitoes

HANCOCK — Controlling mosquitoes in the Hancock area is again this year a project sponsored by the Hancock Rotary Club.

This work has been in effect for several years and the results have been so outstanding that residents are 100 per cent behind the project. The mayor and town council have cooperated by providing funds and other necessary items for the work since it was inaugurated.

Through the cooperation of the state of Maryland, funds were provided to spray the entire town twice instead of the one application applied in previous years.

Dr. C. Graham, who is in charge of the work, stated that the two applications would amount to prevention rather than a cure; in other words, the first application was applied about five weeks ago when the first mosquitoes were observed, and the next application, which was applied last week, was made before any mosquitoes were reported along the old C & O canal, the breeding place of thousands of the pests.

Dr. Graham believes that the application of DDT applied last week will give good control for the remainder of the year.

Lions Hear Talk By Youth Pastor; Annual Event Set

MOOREFIELD — The Moorefield Lions Club met a recent evening at the Hotel McNeill.

The speaker was J. Paul Vondracek, student minister at the Moorefield Presbyterian Church for the summer, who discussed "Are You Fit To Live With?"

Vondracek said that if the question were asked of a wife and of children different answers would be given. He added that many fathers today are so busy with business problems, meetings and work that they are neglecting their children.

The annual Lions Club picnic will be held again this year at Fort Buttermilk on Labor Day, according to the announcement of Charles Bean, president of the civic group. Bean named C. R. Powers, R. E. Fisher and W. C. H. Poole as a committee for the grounds, and Donald J. Baker, C. A. Ludwick Jr. and Richard Troughton on the food committee.

The industrial committee for the club was designated by Bean to answer queries on two industrial sites available in Moorefield.

Eckhart Airs Water Plans

ECKHART—Two different proposals were placed before residents of Eckhart at a meeting of the Eckhart Water Association last night. The original plan advanced, in order to secure filtered water from the City of Frostburg, was to connect with the present lines of the Eckhart Water Company near the old coal tipple of the Consolidated Fuel Company, and run new mains to the sections of the community now without water. This proposition, according to its proponents, would cost each property owner approximately $100. The second group proposed to run an entirely new line to Eckhart, connecting with the Frostburg lines at Mt. Pleasant East, Extended, near the extreme eastern part of the corporation. This project, according to the group who advanced it, would cost each customer in the neighborhood of $300. Each group explained the advantages of their proposal and considerable discussion ensued. Committees have conferred with contractors regarding the cost of laying the mains and service lines, and with the officials of the City of Frostburg. The officers of the Eckhart Water Company have stated that they will permit the new group to make the necessary taps onto their present lines, and will supply all of the water required, if the original plan is adopted. A meeting has been set at which proponents of the two plans will meet, and endeavor to work out a single plan which will include all of the good features of both.

Keyser Post To Take Part In GOC Alert

KEYSER — Charles Logsdon, supervisor of the Keyser Ground Observation Post, has announced that an alert training exercise will take place Sunday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. in conjunction with all other observation posts in the Pittsburgh Air Defense Filter Center area. Ground Observation Posts in this area are now operating on a "Ready Reserve" basis whereby the volunteer observers man the posts and report aircraft to the filter center only when alerted to do so. The Keyser post formerly operated 24 hours a day. However, this was changed as a result of the establishment of increased warning facilities between this area and any possible hostile air attack. These include the Distant Early Warning Line, Texas Towers and Airborne Early Warning. Logsdon said the need for volunteer observers in this area is still of paramount importance to the defense of the United States in the event of an attack and for passing information on aircraft in distress or severe weather warnings. The Air Force will continue to train volunteers for this work in conjunction with Civil Defense officials.

The Police Department has moved its transmitter to the Fire Department transmitter building near Braddock water tank. Fire Chief Virgil Parker has announced.

He said the location boosts the range of the police department equipment to over 25 miles.

Chief Parker said firemen have housed their radio equipment in a 12 by 12 foot building on Seneca Avenue for several years.

Both radio nets are now controlled by telephone from Central Fire Company and Police Headquarters.

Virtually every vehicle operated by the Police and Fire departments here is equipped with two-way radios to provide constant communications with headquarters.

Upon learning that Maryland police and firemen are eligible for the federal Social Security program under new federal legislation, Mannion said he will forward to the city ballots to be used in department elections.

Mayor Eves will make plans for the elections here. Members may vote on whether or not they wish to enter the system.

County Board Informed On Land Change

Portions East Side Playground Needed For Crosstown Work

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners was notified today of the procedures which will be followed in connection with the transfer of certain portions of the East Side School playground to the State Roads Commission for use in construction of the Crosstown Thruway in that area.

Matthew J. Mullaney, local attorney handling the transaction for the SRC declared the state would turn over the $37,500 which is being paid for the land used to the county board which in turn would transfer the funds to the Board of Education.

Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of county schools, said the Board of Education has entered into an agreement with the SRC whereby certain work would be done by the state in developing another playground section for the school in the immediate area.

When the construction starts on that section of the Thruway the state will do certain grading work on the new playground and also provide some fill dirt for a portion of the present playground which will be incorporated into the new play area.

The Board of Education will have a fence erected between the new playground site and the Thruway as a protective measure.

Bosley Made Corporal In State Police

Trooper First Class Harry S. Bosley, Lonaconing, has been promoted to corporal, Col. Elmer F. Munshower, superintendent of the Maryland State Police, announced today.

Two other Allegany County men received promotions from troopers first class to corporal, Walter H. Wahl, formerly of Cumberland, and John Worgan, formerly of Westernport.

Cpl. Wahl is assigned to Waldorf Barracks and Cpl. Worgan to Randallstown Barracks.

Cpl. Bosley in 1946 became a state trooper after World War II service as an infantry officer.

He has been working out of LaVale Barracks since then, except for a period when he saw action as an infantry officer in the Korean War.

He holds the Silver Star for bravery in action from both wars.

In recent years, Cpl. Bosley has been on assignment at Lonaconing. With his promotion, he will be transferred to the LaVale barracks.

A successor to him at Lonaconing has not been named, Col. Munshower reported.

The advancement of the three men follows the addition of one corporal at each State Police barracks.

PSC Approves C&A Franchises

The Maryland Public Service Commission yesterday passed an order authorizing the Cumberland and Allegany Gas Company to exercise franchises obtained in Deer Park, Loch Lynn, Kitzmiller and Oakland.

The gas company was granted a franchise by Kitzmiller on November 7, 1955; by Loch Lynn, November 7, 1955; Deer Park, November 28, 1955, and Oakland, January 9, 1956.

Getty Reports To Board On Coal Tipple

Operator To Discuss Matter With Officials Within Few Weeks

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, gave a report to the board today of an inspection of the proposed site of a tippie for a coal screening operation at Moscow.

A large delegation of residents of the Georges Creek community entered a protest to the erection of the tippie at Tuesday's session of the board.

Getty, along with J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor, and George Hale, maintenance engineer for the State Roads Commission, went to the scene Wednesday. Getty said that the work of clearing the site for the tippie would endanger the Laurel Run Road by cutting away of the tow of the slope down from the roadway. This would eliminate the lateral support of the road, he added.

Another factor is the use of heavy trucks on the Laurel Run Road to the strip mine area. They will endanger the small wooden bridges on that road, it was said.

The tippie and strip mining operation is that of James Thrasher, of Somerset, Pa. The tippie would face State Route 36 and coal trucks would dump their loads into the tippie from a point off the Laurel Run Road.

William H. Lemmert, president of the county board, said Thrasher contacted him Wednesday and indicated he would be willing to sit down and discuss the matter so that a solution could be found. Thrasher said that he will be away for several weeks and would meet with the responsible officials on his return.

Tawes Feels Democratic Win In Sight

Says Party Members Want Unity, Harmony In State Leadership

SAINT MARGARET, Md. (AP)—Comptroller J. Millard Tawes, with an eye on the Democratic nomination for governor, says Maryland Democrats "are crying for unity and harmony and a Democratic leadership to get them back on the path to victory."

Tawes, who officially announced his candidacy last April, said he had learned this during visits to the state's 23 counties and Baltimore City.

He was guest of honor yesterday at the sixth annual watermelon party of former State Sen. Frank M. Duval, which officially launched the fall campaign.

A crowd of about 500 persons, mostly Democrats, heard Tawes say he feels a Democratic victory in the air.

He told them he will be mindful of the general election during his campaigning for the primary.

Tawes said he has given much thought to the formation of a party ticket but added that no announcement will be made until after a vacation.

Senate President Louis L. Goldstein (D-Calvert) declined to comment on reports he might run for comptroller. But he said he would make an announcement soon at a press conference in Annapolis.

Goldstein said he had received favorable encouragement to seek state office in recent months during travels through the state.

Playground Season Ends

The playground season ended today and the Recreation Department extended its thanks to workers, leaders and supervisors for making it a successful one.

The department is in the process of compiling attendance figures over the nine-week period and is expected to release this data in a few days.

All small equipment, such as balls, bats and games, has been turned in to the department. On city-owned playgrounds, large play equipment will be allowed to remain for some weeks longer.

On school-owned grounds, however, the department expects to remove its equipment within a week.

Dance, Music Programs Set At Local Fair

The 4-H tractor driving contest and the first of two Midwestern Hayride presentations were the highlights of yesterday's activities at the Cumberland Fair.

The western music program will be repeated today at 8 p. m. for the grandstand crowd.

Tomorrow at 8 p. m. will be the "rock 'n' roll" jamboree with a dance contest for area couples.

Yesterday 11 boys competed in the tractor driving event to compete for the right to represent the county in the state finals at the Maryland State Fair at Timonium next week.

William Baker, a Flintstone High School boy, won first place of $15. John Miltenberger and Louis Miltenberger of Ridgeley finished second and third to receive $12 and $10 respectively.

James B. Arnold, assistant county farm agent, supervised the contest assisted by Guy Gienger, extension agriculture engineer from the University of Maryland. Judges included Joseph Steger, Martin Gordon, Kenneth Malone, Daniel Jones and James Morgan.

A log-sawing contest, also scheduled for yesterday, was cancelled for lack of sufficient entries.

Judging at the fair has been completed, and the exhibits will remain today and tomorrow afternoon for those who still wish to view them. A musical concert by Miss Jessie Griffith on the organ, between 5 and 6 p. m. proved a popular innovation yesterday and will be repeated today.

The grandstand remains open daily until 6:30 p. m. free of charge to permit people to sit and rest. A fireworks display is scheduled tonight.

lap, Pfc. Edward Shinholt, Sgt. W. M. Hawkins and Pfc. William O. Filsinger. Under combat conditions, the men must be able to put on the gas mask in 15 seconds—to live. They train during the year with Headquarters and Headquarters Company of the 1st Battalion of the 115th Infantry Regiment.

Damage Suits Seek $15,000

Two suits were filed in Circuit Court in which damages totaling $15,000 are being asked in connection with a fatal highway accident last January 12 about 9 p. m. on State Route 36 between Shaft and Wright's Crossing.

Fred M. Wilson, administrator of the estate of Cecil A. Tomlinson, deceased, filed one suit for $10,000 damages against Lolita Delores Llewellyn, Dan's Mountain, Midland.

The declaration states that Tomlinson was walking along the left side of the highway on the shoulder and was facing traffic. The man was headed in the direction of Frostburg. It is alleged that the Llewellyn woman was driving in the direction of Frostburg and while attempting to pass another machine her car traveled to the left of the road and struck Tomlinson.

The declaration also stated that Tomlinson suffered fractures of both legs, lacerations and other injuries and died the next morning.

The second suit was docketed by State of Maryland for Charlotte T. Tomlinson, widow of the deceased. She is asking $5,000 in damages. Edward J. Ryan is attorney in both cases.

United Fund Donors To Get Coat Emblem

A gold lapel pin, made in the shape of a "U" and bearing an imprint of the word UNITED, has been designed for givers of $100 or more to the Golden Gifts Division of the County United Fund, William A. Douglas, division chairman announced today.

Wearers of the pin will become members of the Golden U Club of CUF. Douglas said. William C. Walsh is co-chairman of the Golden Gifts Division, which has the job of raising a large "nest egg" for CUF before the October campaign opens.

Wearers of the pin will become members of the Golden U Club of CUF. Douglas said. William C. Walsh is co-chairman of the Golden Gifts Division, which has the job of raising a large "nest egg" for CUF before the October campaign opens.

Although the division campaign will not really get underway until next week, some of the leading business and professional men of the area are already club members and CUF officials are pleased with the results.

Officials said that the $100 minimum is not to be taken as the criterion for giving, but that each donor's income, and conscience, should be his guide.

Edmund S. Burke is president of the County United Fund, and Lewis J. Ort is campaign chairman. Serving as co-chairmen with Ort are Burke, Woodward D. Pealer and William R. Carscaden.

The Industrial Division is headed by Robert M. Hainsfurther, Joseph M. Miller and T. J. Klauenberg.

The County United Fund goal, designed to cover the health, welfare and youth needs of all bona fide agencies, whether or not they affiliate with CUF, is $250,000. The section embraced by the fund includes Cumberland, Frostburg, Georges Creek, Tri-Towns, Keyser and all of the communities surrounding those areas.

Memorial Gets $120,000 Grant

Memorial Hospital today was informed it was declared eligible for a $120,000 grant from the Ford Foundation.

John A. Moberly, superintendent, said the information was contained in a letter from Joseph M. McDaniel Jr., secretary to the foundation.

The institution was originally declared ineligible for the Ford grants, Moberly said, but after qualifying as a non-profit organization it was subsequently approved by Ford Foundation officials.

WoodTrucker Draws Fine

A trucker was fined $10 and costs today in Trial Magistrate's Court when his load of pulp wood was higher than the law requires.

Dalton E. Shippey, Mann's Choice, was arrested Tuesday by John J. Develin, of the Department of Motor Vehicles truck weighing crew which was checking vehicles on Route 220 south of Cumberland.

Trial Magistrate Donald W. Mason said a load cannot be any higher than 12 feet, 6 inches from the surface of the highway, except for auto carriers and trucks carrying baled hay.

These are allowed to be 13 feet, 6 inches from the highway surface, he noted.

When stopped by the truck weighing crew, the load of timber was found to be 13 feet 5 inches from the ground, Devlin testified.

Adult Swimming Class Successful

The Recreation Department today said its adult swimming class at Constitution Park Pool attracted an average attendance of 45.

Terming it highly successful, the department said because of interest shown, the class originally scheduled for a week was extended an additional week and ended last Friday.

John Morris, Sue Silcox and Martha Miller were instructors.

Final Budget Session Held By Council

City Must Provide $10,000 Additional For Social Security

The Mayor and Council holds what might be its final budget-setting session this afternoon and is expected to approve a tax rate of $1.57, one cent less than that for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

The meeting was set for 3:30 p. m. Under the city's charter, council must have set the levy by August 25 but that day falls on Sunday, it will have until Monday to complete its task. The budget must be approved unanimously.

With the possibility that police and firemen may ballot to come under Social Security as provided in a new federal law, the city must set aside approximately $10,000 to meet its share of the program if approved here. City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson said approximately 120 men would be affected by social security coverage.

Council was expected to make this among its first orders of business this afternoon.

The one-cent drop in the tax rate is the result of a decrease in the amount needed for debt service.

The proposed new budget will allow .3202 cents for debt service, the lowest amount since 1938-39 when it was .4329 cents. Debt service will cost $243,033 compared to $252,155 during the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Operating expenses, for which the new budget appropriates $110,500 more than last year, will account for the other $1,2498 of the tax rate.

In all, a total of $1,515,326 is appropriated for operating expenses compared to $1,404,826 last year and $1,321,328 actually spent.

Favorable factors for the city include an increase in the tax base from $73,000,000 to $75,900,000, and rising revenues from state funds shares with municipalities.

Following is a comparable table showing debt service, operating expense and tax rates since the fiscal year 1938-39:

Year	Debt Service	Operating	Tax Rate
1938-39	$.4329	$.6800	$1.10
1939-40	.3860	.7140	1.10

'Master Plan' Meet On River Will Be Held

Virginia Does Not Send Representative To Discussion Group

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—A meeting will be scheduled later by Maryland and District of Columbia officials to work on a "master plan" for pollution abatement of the Potomac River.

A scheduled two-day conference on the problem here yesterday ended abruptly in less than a day because Virginia had no representative present.

Conferees — 22 from Maryland and the District of Columbia plus several representatives from the Army — finished discussions in short order since time allotted Virginia was not used.

Virginia Taking Steps

Minutes indicated Virginia took the position that it contributed only a small fraction to pollution of the Potomac and was taking adequate steps to control waste going into the river.

The conference approved a plan, running through 1958, by which the Blue Plains treatment plant in suburban Washington would reduce by about 80 per cent the pollution load now going from the District of Columbia into the Potomac.

Three possible plans for abatement of pollution from the Washington metropolitan area were presented by David V. Ault, director of the Department of Sanitary Engineering for the District of Columbia.

One, which Ault said was favored by members of the Interstate Commission on Potomac River Pollution, proposed expansion of present facilities at a cost of about 71 million dollars. Completion would be set for 1980.

Relatively Clean

Murray Stein, chief of enforcement for Potomac River control in Washington, said it was the consensus of the conferees that "the river is a relatively clean stream when it comes into the Washington metropolitan area but, due to discharge of raw and untreated sewage from the District of Columbia, Alexandria, Fairfax and Arlington counties (in Virginia), the river becomes polluted."

He said the "master plan" to be discussed at the next meeting, probably in the late fall, will include not only methods for making the Blue Plains plant more efficient and expanding its facilities, but methods for controlling sewage discharges into the river at other places in the Washington metropolitan area.

Board Expresses Bridge Thanks

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners today authorized Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, to write letters of thanks to U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall and Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde for their efforts in having legislation passed so that the county obtained a federally-owned bridge.

Getty commented that the recent passage of legislation turning the Bailey bridge at Corriganville over to the county by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads culminated four years of effort. The bridge was placed over Wills Creek after high waters had washed away another structure. The bridge was placed on concrete piers and the cost of removal would be more than the structure was worth. There had been misunderstanding concerning the bridge with the county laboring under the belief it was a gift from the government. Actually, according to the Bureau of Public Roads, the bridge was only loaned to the county.

Senator Asks Special Sessions For Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.) today proposed a special session of Congress each November and December to be devoted almost entirely to federal budget legislation.

In a bill prepared for introduction in the Senate, Magnuson suggested requiring the President to submit his budget by July 15 each year, and making the government fiscal year correspond with the calendar year.

Jurist Takes Time To Rule On Narcotics

BALTIMORE (AP)—Judge Anselm Sodaro has asked for more time before deciding on a verdict in a case he calls "probably the most tragic instance involving the use of narcotics to come before this court."

A young doctor and his wife are charged with using narcotics. The story came out in Criminal Court yesterday when they pleaded no contest to the charges.

Dr. Wilbur Hamman, 29, gave himself barbiturates for migraine headaches. He was studying psychiatry and working in a hospital at the time.

It became a habit and, in an effort to break it, he turned to narcotics.

Charles Mindel, attorney for the couple, said Dr. Hamman "literally forced some drugs" on his wife when she became worried over his use of them. Police testified scars on her arms indicated she used more than her husband.

Both man and wife are college graduates. Dr. Hamman has been recommended for a state job.

His widow and two children survive.

Board Receives Letter On Phone Rate Proposal

A letter was received today by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners from William E. Kight, 817 Braddock Road, in which he outlines his objections to the proposed increase in rates by the C&P Telephone Company.

Kight said he estimated the proposed increase would cost him $14.50 per year and that the inclusion of Westernport, McCoole and Lonaconing in the "toll free area" would not benefit him at all.

He said that during the past three and a half years he made only one call in that area and the chances are that he would not make more than one call during the same length of time in the future.

Kight said that on the basis of the added "toll free area" the Public Service Commission should deny the rate increase. If the telephone company was basing its increase request on the increase in operating costs then it would be a different matter, he added.

The county board has not taken any official action in the phone rate increase proposal but is expected to do so in the near future.

Elkins Doctor Wins Honors

PSC Schedules Hearing On Fare Increase

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Public Service Commission has scheduled a hearing for Sept. 11 on a proposed bus fare increase by the Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad Co.

The commission said opposition to the increase has been lodged in a resolution by the mayor and aldermen of Annapolis, and by several private citizens.

The company last July 29 announced a planned five-cent increase in fares up to 50 cents, with only the Baltimore-Riviera Beach run among the line's major routes not affected.

Bruce P. Wilson, president of the company, said the line had made no general change in fares since 1950 despite higher operating costs.

Forecasts are for a 25 per cent jump in the amount of petroleum used in this country over the next five years.

Girl, Wounded By Police In Chase, Held For Jury

BALTIMORE (AP)—Shirley Ann Dickel, 17-year-old Lancaster, Pa. blonde who led police a merry chase through Baltimore before being wounded by a policeman's bullet last week, was ordered held in $1,300 bail today for action of the grand jury.

She appeared before Magistrate Vernon H. Wiesand on a criminal charge of assault by automobile—five counts.

"I could fine her or send her to jail," Wiesand said, "but I don't think it would do much good. Neither she nor society would gain much by anything I could do by disposing of this case."

"I trust that on the Supreme Bench level, they will do psychiatric examination and treatment of this young lady."

Miss Dickel, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erisman Dickel, was taken to Central police headquarters to answer a series of traffic charges, but the case was postponed.

Offhand, we can think of no one who has gotten off to a more discouraging start as a football coach than Claude Flagg, newly-appointed mentor at Romney High School.

Only several months out of college, Flagg undoubtedly moved his belongings from his hometown of Martinsburg and took off for the Hampshire County town bursting with enthusiasm. Just 22 years old, he was getting a chance to fulfill a boyhood dream and packed in his bag were a lot of fresh ideas.

Last week he called out candidates and was greeted by 28 boys. Probably Flagg expected to see more, but figured that others would show up later. However, instead of getting larger, the number is shrinking.

On Tuesday, for instance, only 18 boys reported to the practice field and a check with Flagg this morning revealed that the figure was down to 13.

"I just can't understand it," said the new Romney tutor with a mark of disappointment noted in the tone of his voice. "They tell me that some of the boys are employed in the apple and peach orchards but I don't believe there are enough to make such a drastic reduction."

Followers of the Pioneers down through the years have told Flagg they have never seen anything like the present lack of enthusiasm. Such can be expected in a small school, but Romney happens to be a Class A institution. Besides, the Pioneers know what it means to be winners, having copped one state championship and been runnersup on another occasion.

Launching upon a career that is something entirely different, Flagg, like every other coach starting out, is eager to get away to an impressive start. But with the opening game at Charles Town only three weeks away, the Romney boys are putting their new boss under a great handicap.

They're not giving the former Martinsburg High star a chance. In fact, unless these boys have a good excuse for not reporting, they are being very unfair.

Sports Keg Residue

Bob Mattingly, not Tom Mattingly, got the single that led off the Caseys' half of the seventh inning in the opening City Softball League playoff game between the Hermans and Knights of Columbus Wednesday at Stitches Field. That made two errors on the play, the one by Herman shortstop Frank Scarpelli putting Mattingly on second and the one by the Evening Times story for failing to get Bob up to the plate. . . . Clarence Mackay has been receiving high praise for his job as a starter at Wheeling Downs. . . . His method of dispatching the horses has been little short of sensational, not one bad start being charged against him during the first 36 days of the current meeting. . . . And he has never been longer than a half-minute getting them away, all in perfect alignment. . . . Harry Bosley didn't expect any reward for his efforts as manager of the fine Lonaconing entry in the Bi-State Pony Baseball League, but the end of the season found him being given corporal stripes. . . . A captain in the Army and a veteran of two wars (World War II and Korean), Bosley is one of the old hands working out of the Cumberland barracks of the State Police. . . . He is the holder of the coveted Silver Star for gallantry in action. . . . One of the new men brought up to a National League club in mid-season for the stretch run had to lick a bad boy tag. . . . According to Murray Olderman of NEA, the player in question had been canned by the majors in a previous hitch when he showed up loaded in the clubhouse one afternoon and went out on the field to indulge in a pepper game with the bat boy while still toggled in his street clothes.

Four-Minute Mile Beaten 27 Times

NEW YORK (AP) — Since 1954 when Roger Bannister of England ran the mile in 3:59.4, trackmen have been under the 4-minute mile 26 times.

When Derek Ibbotson of England set the record of 3:57.2 on July 19 three other runners were under the four minutes in the same race. They were Stanislav Jungwirth of Czechoslovakia, Ran Delaney, the Irish runner who schooled at Villanova, and Ken Wood of England.

In all, the 4-minute mile barrier has been broken ten times in 1957. In 1956, the time was eclipsed nine times, three times in 1955 and four times in 1954.

Sixteen runners have beaten four minutes. Australia's John Landy has accomplished the feat six times. Record holder Ibbotson has beaten the charmed time on four occasions.

Rademacher's World Dreams Turned To Dust

Patterson Knocks Out Amateur In Sixth Round

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the cool destroyer who holds the world heavyweight championship, cut down powerful Pete Rademacher last night and turned to dust the big guy's dream of stepping from the amateur peak to the pinnacle of the pros.

Giving away 15 pounds — the champion weighed 187 to Rademacher's 202 — Floyd decked the courageous challenger seven times before Pete took the full count at 2:57 of the sixth round.

But, to the consternation of thousands who regarded this as a mismatch, Patterson was the first man to hit the canvas. Midway in the second round Rademacher crossed a right to the champion's jaw. Floyd seemed to slip as he sagged, but he went all the way down and the knockdown counter at ringside had reached the tally of four when he got back up.

Waves Off Count

Referee Tommy Loughran waved off the count, ruling it no knockdown but later in his dressing room Floyd said he was bowled over by the punch.

The professional began to show his superiority over the Olympic tumbler in the third round, leaping from a crouch to spear Rademacher with a straight right that sent the big guy sprawling.

He took a nine count and was back on his feet at the bell, but the crowd of 16,961 had its tipoff on the outcome.

It was delayed in Round 4 while Floyd moved easily around big Pete, stalking him and looking for an opening for a payoff punch. He found the range in the fifth.

Four times Patterson blasted him down in that round, and four times the farm boy from Grandview, Wash., struggled up at the count of nine and tried valiantly to match blows.

Appears Tired, Hurt

Loughran went to Rademacher's corner after the bell to ask Pete if he was all right and got a smiling nod. But Pete appeared tired and hurt, and the few blows he landed in the sixth lacked sting. He clinched, and as Loughran moved in to separate them Patterson poured home a left and then a right. It was the next-to-last knockdown.

Patterson threw a left and this time as Rademacher struggled wearily to his feet the referee waved Patterson away. Most ring-siders thought Loughran was stopping the fight, but the referee said the count had reached 10 and it was a knockout.

After the battle Rademacher offered no alibis and Patterson was high in his praise for the challenger, who had dreamed up this fight and made it real. Rademacher is the first man ever to step from the amateur ranks directly into a heavyweight championship fight.

"He has all the qualifications of a future great fighter," Floyd said. "When somebody is chopping at you with an ax you have to go down eventually," grinned Rademacher, holding a chunk of ice to a slightly puffed eye. Asked if he felt fighting for nothing was worth the effort, he said: "Very definitely."

Gross Gate $243,030

The bout drew a gross gate of $243,030—far short of the anticipated full-house $400,000. Rademacher's backers—a group of Georgia businessmen—put up Patterson's guarantee of $250,000 and took both fighters' share of the gate—60 per cent of the $209,556 net or just under $125,500.

Patterson said this would be his last fight in 1957. Asked if he would fight again now that he has become a professional, Rademacher said that was something he would decide later.

"He is," said Loughran of Rademacher, "the most courageous fighter I have ever seen."

Loughran, who was sole judge, scored the first two rounds for Rademacher and gave the rest to Floyd. The Associated Press card agreed, except for calling the first round even.

Little Leaguers In Finals Today

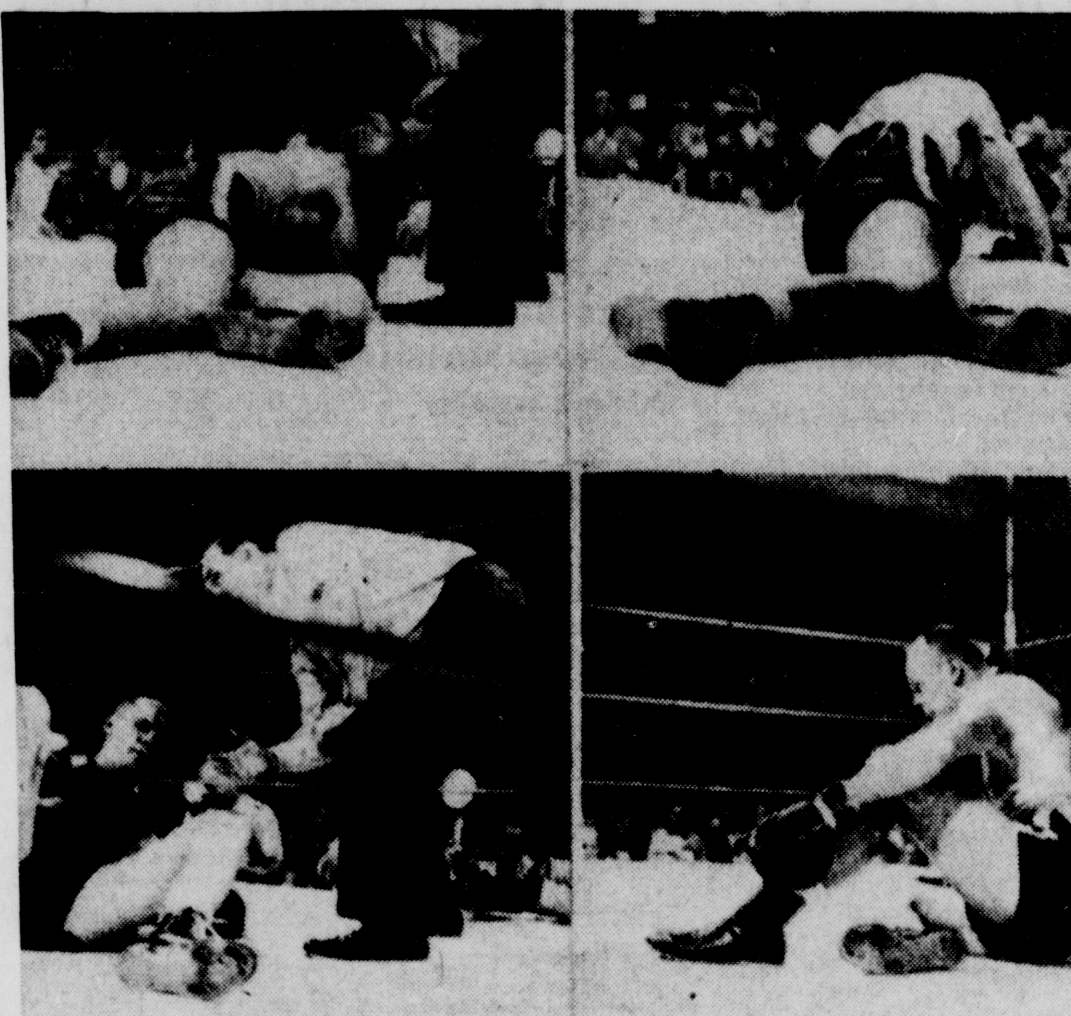

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.—(INS)—Lamesa, Calif., and Monterrey, Mexico, will meet today in the finals of the 11th annual Little League World Series.

Both teams swept through the semi-finals yesterday as Lamesa overpowered Escanaba, Mich., 7 to 2, and Monterrey edged Bridgeport, Conn., 2 to 1.

Lamesa's Joe McKirahan pitched a one-hitter and also belted two homers to drive in three runs. He lost his no-hit bid when Terry Derouin doubled in the last inning.

Lamesa catcher Frank Vogel provided his team's other four runs with a grand-slam homer. McKirahan struck out 15 and walked seven.

Monterrey scored twice in the top half of the fourth and that was enough for Enrique Suarez, who spun a neat four-hitter. The only run off Suarez was on a homer by the opposing hurler, Jim Caldarola.

HERE'S HOW IT ENDED—Pete Rademacher, trying to get to his feet after being knocked down by Floyd Patterson in the sixth round of their title fight last night, rolls over on his back as referee Tommy Loughran begins the fateful count. He managed to get to his feet but not until Loughran had reached 10.

Just Like Being Chopped With Axe, Says Challenger

SEATTLE (AP)—"When somebody's chopping at you with an axe, it's bound to get you."

Pete Rademacher, the Olympic heavyweight champion, thus explained his knockout at the hands of the professional champion of the world, Floyd Patterson, in their title match last night.

Pete, his big, bruised hands soaking in a bucket of ice, was unmarked despite the seven times he hit the canvas, the last time for the count.

Rademacher, his dreams of capturing the heavyweight pro title on his first outing vanished, said he hadn't decided what would be next on his schedule.

Wants Return Bout

"I would like to fight Patterson again," Pete said, "but that's a decision that I won't make for a couple of weeks. Of course, I'll have to work up to it the next time, if there is a next time."

Pete won the Olympic title in Melbourne, Australia, and almost singlehandedly promoted last night's fight with Patterson, the first time that an amateur heavyweight king had stepped into the ring in a title fight against the pro champion.

Loughran Advises Pete To Quit Ring

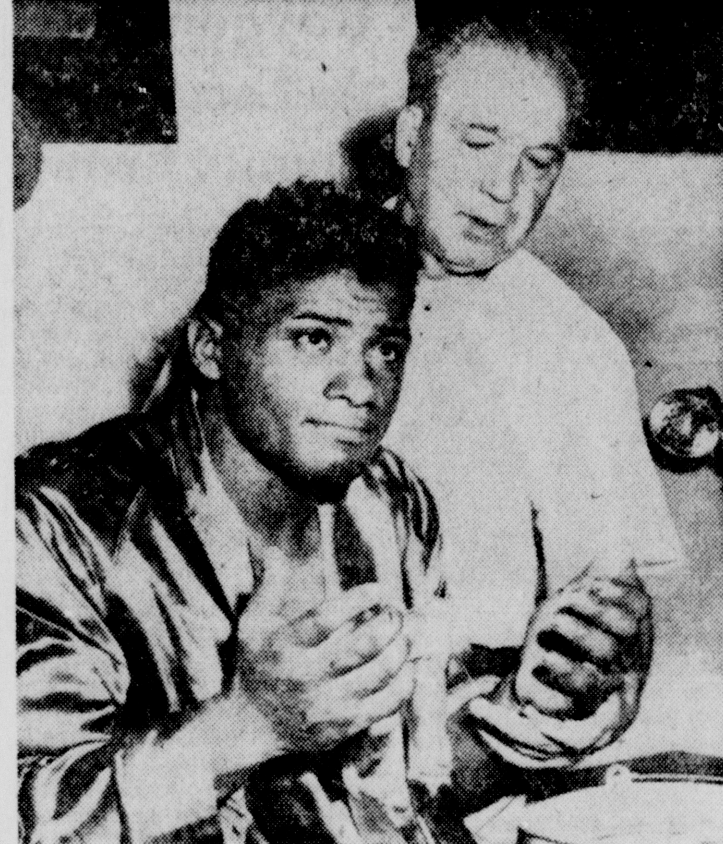

SEATTLE (AP)—Referee Tommy Loughran, one of the great light heavyweight boxing champions of yesteryears, today advised Pete Rademacher to quit the ring.

At the same time he said heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson could become as great as Jack Dempsey.

Of Rademacher, the 1956 Olympic king whose first bout out of the amateur ranks was last night's sixth round knockout to Patterson, Tommy said:

"The fellow needs experience the same as any amateur does on turning pro. He hits hard and has the heart of a lion. He could do well with the contenders. But he is 28 and at his age it would be foolish to start."

"Pete would be far too capable in other fields of endeavor."

THESE ARE THE HANDS — World heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson holds up his hands with his trainer, Dan Flori, in dressing room after knockout victory. It was the first pro fight for Pete Rademacher, Olympic champion.

Frederick In Do-Or-Die Legion Regional Tonight

PARKERSBURG, W. Va.—(AP)—It's certain death for either Frederick, Md., or Whitesville, W. Va., when the two teams meet in tonight's only game in the Regional American Legion Junior Baseball Tournament.

Frederick, with one loss so far in the double elimination tourney, stayed alive last night by beating Wilmington, Del., 9-4. The Whitesville nine, West Virginia champs, suffered their first setback in last night's second game in a 9-6 loss to Washington's Gas Light Post 44.

Wilmington's loss eliminated the Delaware champions from the tournament.

The winner of tonight's contest will meet the undefeated Washington team tomorrow. Tonight's game starts at 7 p. m. (EST).

Charles Zimmerman, a nine-year-old pitcher, walked five and pitched no-hit ball after the fourth inning for Frederick in last night's first game. He held Wilmington to five hits.

Frederick capitalized on five Wilmington errors and piled up (Continued on Page 15)

Logart To Risk Ranking Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — Cuban welterweight Isaac Logart risks his No. 2 ranking tonight against up-and-coming Walter Byars of Boston in a 10-round bout at Detroit's Olympia Stadium.

He is a solid 11-5 favorite to defeat the 25-year-old Byars, the ex-Marine who has had only 21 pro bouts. Byars has been brought along rapidly and has won 16 of his 21 fights.

Logart, too, will be trying to bounce back. He lost a 12-round decision to Gaspar Ortega his last time out on May 10.

Milwaukee Makes Pennant Claim More Secure

Braves Belt Brooklyn As Aaron Raps Homer 35

By FRED DE LUCA

NEW YORK—INS—Pennant-hungry Milwaukee is determined to play its remaining 35 games "one at a time" but the Braves figure they're "over the hump" now in their flag quest.

The Braves made their pennant claim a little more secure last night when they beat Brooklyn, 6 to 1, in the opener of a three-game set.

The Dodgers went with Sal Maglie, 1956 nemesis of the Braves, in the hope the old Barber could spark them on a stretch drive. But the Braves gave solid evidence in the first inning that 1957, at last, is going to be their year.

After Frank Torre walked, Ed Mathews hit a solid ground smash that eluded second baseman Junior Gilliam's glove by inches. Instead of a doubleplay, it was a single and two runners were on.

Aaron Smashes 35th

Hank Aaron then hit Maglie's next pitch on a high arc and the ball fell into the first row of the leftfield stands for Aaron's 35th homer. It was all downhill after that for the Braves and Lew Burdette.

Mathews, rookie Bob Hazle and Red Schoendienst collected three hits each for the Braves and the Redhead included a homer among his blows.

Burdette allowed seven hits in winning his 12th game. The defeat dropped the Dodgers 7-1/2 games off the pace—with time fast running out.

St. Louis stayed 6-1/2 games behind the Braves by beating Philadelphia, 6 to 5, as Billy Muffett turned in a fine relief job.

However, the Cards lost the services of Stan Musial with a pulled shoulder muscle. Pittsburgh and Bob Friend beat Cincinnati, 8 to 3, as the Redlegs lost their tenth in a row—top losing streak in the league this season. Willie Mays hit his 28th homer and two doubles to carry the New York Giants to a 6-to-2 win over the Chicago Cubs.

Simpson Hits Slammer

In the American League, Harry Simpson's grand-slam homer helped the New York Yankees beat his former Kansas City teammates, 11 to 4, and increase New York's league lead to 6-1/2 games. The Boston Red Sox pounded out 14 hits and trounced Cleveland, 11 to 3. Frank Lary pitched four-hit ball as Detroit blanked Baltimore, 4 to 0. Chicago and Washington were not scheduled.

Simpson's blast broke a 2-all tie in the third inning and hung the loss on Wally Burnette. It gave the Yanks their first win of the three-game series. Yogi Berra also homered for the Yanks and Joe Demaestri connected for the A's. Mickey Mantle's average fell to .377.

Mike Fornieles went the distance for Boston as Early Wynn lost his 15th for the Indians. Ted Williams had two singles in four at-bats to lift his average to .386. Jackie Jensen homered for the Sox.

Lary, who won 21 in 1956, took his third straight victory but made his record only 7-and-15. Billy O'Dell was the Baltimore loser.

Cards Belt Phillies

After the Cardinals belted Philadelphia ace Jack Sanford for five runs in five innings, Muffett saved Larry Jackson in the sixth and kept the Phils scoreless thereafter. Ken Boyer homered for the Cards as Sanford lost his fifth game in 21 decisions.

The Pirates scored five times in the fourth inning off Don Gross and Tom Acker as they put together six straight hits. That was enough for Bob Friend to coast to any easy victory—his ninth.

Hank Sauer backed up Mays' clouting with a two-run homer of his own. Dick Drott, rookie ace of the Cubs, was the victim of the shelling and Ray Crone the beneficiary. It was Crone's sixth victory.

ORIOLES PLAY LIONS IN PLAYOFF SERIES

Orioles and pennant-winning Lions will meet to determine the champion of the Frostburg Little League in the best-of-three finals with the opener set this evening, 8 o'clock, at the Little League Park.

Orioles moved to the title series yesterday by eliminating Elks, 3-2, on the two-hit pitching of Jim Diehl. He fanned a dozen while getting hitting support from Gerald Gordon who socked a double and single. Delaney and Spriggs had the two hits for the losers.

Elks 666 101-2 3 4
Orioles 200 104-3 5 4

Hazle Hitting At .500 Clip With Braves

By International News Service
The Milwaukee Braves thought so little of Bob Hazle last winter that he was left open to the baseball draft where he could have been picked up by any team for $10,000.

Today, the young outfielder is hitting a scorching .500 for the Braves.

Nobody bothered taking Hazle in the draft because he had a bad knee. The left-handed swinger, who lives in Columbia, S. C., was only hitting .279 at Wichita when the Braves called him up July 27.

The 26-year-old speedster has collected 26 hits in 52 at bats since then. He reached that level last night by banging out three hits in four at-bats as Milwaukee trounced Brooklyn, 6 to 1.

The Braves gained title to Hazle, along with pitcher Corky Valentine in the trade that sent George Crowe to Cincinnati. The deal now seems a little more even.

Hazle was an all-round athlete at high school in Woodruff, S. C. He used to play tailback on the football team but he says he isn't as fast now as he was then, due in part to the fact that he chipped an ankle while in the Army.

Fast or slow, with a .500 batting average, the Braves are glad no one bothered to risk $10,000 on Hazle during the winter.

Raygors Star As Corgs Cop County Crown

The County Softball League became the second area circuit to close out the season and playoffs yesterday as Corriganville whipped Burke's, 7-6, at Corriganville to win the playoff crown.

The victory was the third in the Corgs in the best-of-five action and was highlighted by the hitting and pitching of the Raygor brothers—Joe and Art.

Rally For Triumph

Manager Lloyd Kline's club, which had finished second to pennant-winner Maple Inn, got a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh to come from behind and grab the one-run triumph. Burke's had taken the lead with a marker in the top of the seventh, snapping a 5-5 tie.

Joe Raygor's double in the final frame plated the tying and winning runs and gave Art his 16th triumph in 23 decisions.

Don Rose walked to launch the seventh inning rally. He moved to second on Art Raygor's single. Both runners moved up on Billy Burkett's sacrifice and then Joe Raygor belted one of Paul Stair's offerings for two bases to sew up the game.

Corriganville had won the second and fourth games, 5-4 and 7-4, and Burke's emerged the winner in the first and third contests, 6-2 and 4-0.

Losers Get 12 Hits

Carl Grabowski accounted for two of the Old Exports' 12 hits while Kline, "Nip" Rice, Joe Raygor and "Boots" Raygor hit two batters. Shroyer, Don Kreigline and Jack Lowery had two hits each for Burke's.

First baseman Browning of Burke's turned in a nice catch of a line drive from "Nip" Rice's bat and "Boots" Raygor, the Old Exports' shortstop, robbed Jack Lowery of a hit in the seventh by spearing the latter's liner with second and third out.

ELLERSLIE SEEKS PLAYOFF CROWN

Ellerslie can add the playoff championship to its pennant in the Bi-State Pony Baseball League this evening if making a sweep of the best-of-three finals with Mt. Savage. Their contest, set for 5:45, will be played at 'Savage.

The Sox won the opener, 8-7, with a pair of runs in the last inning on Monday evening. The same clubs fought it out in last year's finals with Mt. Savage taking the first two games for the crown.

Elks' Rice Hurls No-Hitter; Rotary Enters 'Stove Finals

Rotary Club, losing the pennant in the Hot Stove Baseball League in a replay of the seventh inning of a protested game to champion Elks Monday evening, became the first finalists in the loop by eliminating Kiwanis last night at Penn Avenue Field.

Manager Joe Gallen's club scored a shutout in the best-of-three set against Wayne White's fourth-place finishers, winning last night, 11-7, after taking Monday's game, 1-0.

Rice Pitches No-Hitter

Elks kept alive in the bid for double honors by blanking B'nai B'rith, 9-0, on a no-hitter by Charles Rice. Rice faced only 28 batters in the seven-inning contest, whiffing 15 and walking five. He has won four and lost one for the year.

The teams met in the "rubber" game of the series this evening, 7:30, at Penn Avenue. The winner moves into the finals against Rotary with the playoffs to be staged next week.

The Elks shelled Gary Mulligan, B'nai B'rith ace, off the rubber in the fifth and handed him his first loss after he had concluded his regular campaign with a 5-0 mark. Spin finished for the losers.

Donnie Nave and Glen Shipway led the Elks' 11-hit assault with three safeties each. Nave rapped a double and a triple, the latter with the bases loaded, and was thrown out at the plate when he tried to complete the circuit. Roger Grovden blasted a triple and single for the victors. Stan Alt, Elks' second sacker, and Jimmy Cox, shortstop of B'nai B'rith, were the fielding stars.

Rotary Makes Sweep

The Rotary Club ushered the Kiwanians out of the playoffs in two straight games by copping the opener of last night's double-header.

Joe "Handy-Man" Ranker, who started the game catching Melvin Nines, replaced the latter on the mound in the second inning and received credit for the victory. He also paced Rotary's 11-hit assault with three singles in four trips.

Franklin Brode of Rotary opened the game with a home run and added a single later in the game. Pinch-hitter Steve Klavuhn, of Rotary, came through with a timely double that scored two runs.

Charley Abell had three hits and "Butch" Bosley two for the Kiwanis Club.

Outdoor Club continued to the final game its whitewashing spree in the Rocking Chair Softball League, manager Cecil Grimes' pennant winners closing out the campaign with a 7-0 shutout over Pittsburgh Plate Glass yesterday at Stitzer Field.

The victory was the 14th in a row for the once-beaten flag victors and their 12th calculating job of the season. They won 25 times and lost only to Pittsburgh Plate, 1-0.

Vets Finish Third

Coupled with Elks' 5-3 trimming of Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Glassers wound up in fourth place for the playoffs while the Vets snared the third slot.

Playoffs will begin at Stitzer Field Monday with Outdoor Club meeting VFW while Pittsburgh Plate tangles with Elks on Tuesday. The series will be best-of-three games.

"Pistol Pete" Elliott tossed the white washing yesterday, his fourth, while also picking up his 10th triumph in as many decisions. Glenn Kauffman tossed five shutouts while Jim Morrison had two and Charley Day one.

Elliott held the Glassmen to two hits, fanned five and issued one base on balls. Clay "Red" Ingram and Bill Powell obtained the PPG hits in the fifth and seventh innings.

Hyndman Out To Cinch Tie For Flag In Tilt Tomorrow

Hyndman, still shooting for one more victory to assure the Merchants of at least a tie for the pennant in the Penn-Mar Baseball League, meets seventh-place Wellersburg at Hyndman tomorrow as the circuit puts in a full weekend of play.

Only three games remain on the 28-contest schedule with Hyndman having a pair with Wellersburg and another, on Sunday, with Zihlman. The Merchants have won 20 of 25 outings and hold a two-game edge over deadlocked runners-up Zihlman and Barreilville.

The season ends next Sunday. Only three of the playoffs positions have been cinched although no team is assured of the order in which it will finish. Hyndman holds the pace while Zihlman and Barreilville could wind up in a tie for the lead if the Merchants hit a snag and the tied second-placers finish strong.

Centerville, now with a game edge, has fourth place but Grantsville and Mt. Savage are still in the running for the slot. The Sluggers have won 12 of 25 to the 13-12 mark of the Reds. 'Savage is three games out but could wind up in a tie if closing out with three wins while Centerville loses all three and Grantsville falls by the wayside.

Zihlman will be at 'Savage tomorrow afternoon while Centerville tests the winning streak of Barreilville on the Reds' diamond and winless Flintstone invades Grantsville.

Viking Eleven, Keyser High 'Rebuilding'

Keyser High, defending state Class A grid champ and kingpin of the Potomac Valley Conference the past three years, and Petersburg, one of the surprise eleven of the 1956 campaign, are both well into their football drills for the opening games

Petersburg Slate

- Sept. 13—W. Va. Deaf, home (31-18)
- Sept. 20—Moorefield, home (win forfeit)
- Sept. 27—Greenbank, away (12-7)

- Oct. 11—Ridgely, home (30-0)

- Nov. 1—Keyser, home (14-19)
- PVC opponents

which are just two weeks away and both are rebuilding. The Golden Tornado of coach Fred "Tack" Clark are hard hit by graduation losses, only five returning from last year's first two teams. Keyser, when taking on Charles Town at Keyser two weeks from tomorrow, will also carry the longest winning streak of the state into the contest.

Longest Win Streak
The Clarkmen have won their last 16 contests, the finale being against Mullens, 12-0, to snare the state championship. They have also gone unbeaten keeping the PVC title for the last three campaigns, winning five in each of the three seasons.

Keyser has a ten-game card for '57, meeting Parsons at home the week after the opener and then taking on five PVC opponents in addition to LaSalle, Beall of Frostburg and Allegany.

Petersburg, where William "Honey" Crites is beginning his second season, was one of the surprise eleven last fall. The Vikings finished second in the PVC with a 7-1 record and lost only once in nine starts for the grind.

Lose Only To Champs
The only blot on the Vikings' record last year was the 19-14 loss to champion Keyser.

Eight three-year vets, but only four regulars, were among the candidates turning out for initial drills. John Frye, 175-pound junior fullback, is expected to carry the big load for the Vikings. Frye was the second leading scorer in the PVC last fall with 48 points on eight touchdowns.

Petersburg launches its slate against Southern in Oakland in two weeks and then has eight more foes, including seven in the league. The lone outsider is Greenbank with that contest slated for September 27 at Greenbank. The Keyser and Petersburg rosters follow:

Milwaukee Prepared To Celebrate Pennant

MILWAUKEE — (INS) — The Milwaukee Association of Commerce is well prepared for a civic celebration if the league-leading Braves win the pennant. It has $5,601 worth of decorations saved from last season when the Braves blew the pennant by one game.

STAY IN LINE
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Frank Ippolito, New York welterweight, is a substitute school teacher and during the summer months he works as a tree surgeon for the park department.

Peskin's Enters Finals, Defeats Shoppers, 6-5

A three-run rally in the top of the seventh yesterday put Peskin's Shoe Store into the Rec Softball League finals and knocked pennant-winning Sports Shoppe out of a chance of taking double titles in the circuit. The Shoemen took a 6-5 decision at Fort Hill Field.

Peskin's will meet Post Play-ground in the finals which will start next week. The Shoemen finished third during the season while Post's was runnerup and eliminated South End Merchants in their rounds.

The winning rally started with two away when Ronnie Phillips walked and scored ahead of Jim Hinkle who slammed a home run to knot the count at 5-all. Corbin singled and moved to third when Maheo got a life on an error. Then "Sonny" Peskin delivered the hit that sent Corbin over the platter with the winning tally.

Phillips tossed a five-hitter for Peskin's and struck out four. He made his record 10-2 for the season. Frank Doolan, the loser, also has won ten games and lost two.

Peskin garnered two of the winners eight hits. John Teter and Phillips rapped doubles and Hinkle hit for the circuit. Smith collected a pair of two-baggers for the Sports Shoppe.

Peskin's won the opener of the best-of-three series by the score of 6-3 and Sports Shoppe evened up matters by taking the second, 6-3.

De la Torre Pacing Field

MILWAUKEE — (INS) — Manuel de la Torre of Milwaukee, golf stands 97th on the 1957 PGA golf earnings list with less than a thousand dollars, today led the field into the second round of the $35,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

Trailing the 35-year-old pro from the nearby Milwaukee Country Club are 16 of the nation's 18 top money winners. Their goal is the $6,000 first prize.

De la Torre, who has been a pro since 1947 without attracting much attention outside of Wisconsin, toured Tripoli Golf Club's 6,355-yard layout in a 5-under-par 65 yesterday for a slim one-stroke lead.

said the punch had a lot of beef behind it.

"The knockdown didn't surprise me as much as it did Floyd," Rademacher said. "I saw the opening and poured it home. It was a right to the side of the head."

"Floyd told us after the fight it hurt him," George Chermers, Rademacher's trainer, chimed in. "It was a dandy punch."

"Pete fought the fight we wanted him to fight, but Patterson was just too strong — and fast — for him."

Rademacher said he bruised his right hand in the second round when he hit Patterson on the top of the head. Otherwise the challenger showed no marks of battle.

"I was very pleased to meet the champion," Rademacher said. "He was extremely fair and strong."

"His strongest punch is a short right hand to the head. Those were the shots that got me over the long haul. Each one took a little more out of me."

"His body punches didn't seem to faze me at all. I've fought amateurs who hit as hard as Floyd. One of those was Zora Polley (now the No. 2 heavyweight)."

"Of course, he got to me in the third and it was tough getting up."

Pete said he felt stronger after the fourth round and was just getting his second wind early in the fifth when Patterson downed the Olympic champion four times.

Patterson Credits

Foe With Knockdown

SEATTLE — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, knocked down for only the second time in his pro career before stopping amateur king Pete Rademacher last night, gave his full credit.

"I don't remember going down, so obviously it was a knockdown," the 22-year-old Floyd said in his hot, crowded dressing room at Sicks Stadium.

"Most everybody underestimated him," Patterson said of the 28-year-old Rademacher. "Fortunately, I didn't."

"I underestimated his punching power but not his ability. He's fresh from winning the Olympic heavyweight title, and eager. He has the qualifications of a future great fighter but he lacks experience."

Patterson said he was surprised by the knockdown but didn't feel he was in any trouble. He appeared unmarked as he dropped his hands in a bucket of ice water, and talked calmly.

"Rademacher was a much harder puncher than Hurricane Jackson but he doesn't have the stamina." Told he appeared disgusted when Rademacher went down for his fourth count of nine in the fifth stanza, Patterson replied: "Why should I have been disgusted. I wasn't going down."

Hermans Seek Title Today

The Hermans can close out the play in the City Softball League this evening as they seek a sweep over Knights of Columbus in the best-of-three finals. The Caseys will be gunning to send the series the limit, having lost the opener, 6-4, Wednesday evening.

Today's game between the two finalists is carded for 6:15 at Stitches Field.

The Caseys and Hermans finished in a deadlock for first over the season while the Knights drew first in the playoffs and the Hermans the second slot. Manager Jim Allen's club eliminated Old Exports in straight games, 18-0 and 6-2, in the semifinals.

The Caseys, piloted by Mickey Clark, had to go three games before kayoing Old Germans, although one contest finished in a 7-7 deadlock and was called because of darkness in seven frames. The Caseys won the other two tilts, 3-1 and 10-6.

If the series has to go the limit, the deciding game will be played next week.

Cresaptown Halts Barrelville Skein; Orioles In Finals

The only undefeated record in the area came to a halt yesterday when Cresaptown whipped Barrelville, 6-4, at home in the semifinals of the Pen-Mar Little League playoffs. The defeat was the first in 22 games for the pennant winners and squared the best-of-three series at a game apiece.

LaVale Orioles, last year's playoff kings, gained one of the final berths by sweeping the set against LaVale Maroons, 32-5, at LaVale. The game was highlighted by two 11-run innings for the Orioles.

The Little Bombers were coasting along on what appeared to be a safe, 4-0, lead and a sweep of the set against Cresaptown when a six-run explosion in the fifth settled the contest.

The deciding game in the set will be played Tuesday, 6 p. m., at Barrelville.

Jay Miller, Steven Vandenberg and Dave Shoup connected for doubles to drive in two runs each in the big innings to defeat Joe Nolan who was 10-0 prior to yesterday's upset.

Francis Ferrone went the route for Cresaptown. He yielded five hits and whiffed six. Nolan gave up six safeties and struck out five. Linn of Barrelville and Vandenberg of Cresaptown garnered two hits each.

LaVale's Orioles scored nine runs in the first frame and 11 runs in each the fifth and sixth innings.

Barmoy and Comer of the Orioles collected three hits each while Snyder and Scaletta shared four of the Maroons' six safeties.

Patty, Mulloy Given Hard Fight

BROOKLINE, Mass.—(INS)—Top-seeded Budge Patty and Gardner Mulloy, today were clear of the quarter-final round of the National doubles tennis championships, but only after a rugged battle with a pair of California students.

The heavily-favored veterans needed five sets to eliminate Mike Green and Myron Frank, 6-4, 7-5, 6-8, 1-6, 9-7.

Fourth-seeded Roy Emerson and Bob Mark of Australia, swept Straight Clark, of Philadelphia and David Harum, of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-2, 6-3, 6-1, in another quarter-final match.

Two more quarter-finals will be played today.

Mrs. Mary Hawton, of Australia, and Mrs. Pat Todd, La Jolla, Calif., upset Christine Truman and Ann Haydon of England, 6-3, 6-4.

Frederick

six unearned runs in the first inning.

Although this was enough to win, the Francis Scott Key Post of Frederick scored single tallies in the second, fourth and fifth. Wilmington scored three times in the first and once in the eighth, the latter set up by Frederick's only error of the game.

In the second game the Washington entry tallied four times in the third inning, two of them on a wild throw from third by Terry Wiseman.

In Memoriam

In memory of our wife and mother, Mrs. Deane V. Bishop who passed away, August 23, 1957.

In our hearts we'd like to say, Along the roads of yesterday, To hear her laugh and see her smile, And talk with her a little while, But we cannot bring her old days back, Her hand we cannot touch, But God has given us sweet memories, Of the one we loved so much.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes, and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Saturday, August 24, 1957

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—This day will be much what you make it. You may run into differences of opinions, perhaps a few snags, but, on the whole, you can make some excellent progress if you put your mind to it.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Look back over the past week, or weeks, and note where you can improve for next week, where you can raise levels in any field or capacity. Give thought to home, due recreation.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—Rather favorable days for most matters—especially interests connected with medicine, inventions, music, literature and industry generally. Be ready for the unusual, should it arise. Keep your program flexible.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Try some new venture if you'd like to, but don't take on more than you can reasonably handle well. Be eager, however, to perform to top capacity, in small or big affairs. Eat sensibly.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—Some intent application needed. Don't waste time on non-essentials. Consider past gains and present efforts. Watch your budget, and do be diplomatic in all dealings.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo)—Don't plunge into action without sufficient facts, data, or experience. "Little things" can trip you up on this kind of day.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra)—Note Virgo. Your outlook is similar. You can do more for others perhaps than for yourself, so go along that way and be happy.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio)—Be diligent and watchful this somewhat tricky day. This does not mean "suspend operations." Rather apply extra energy to outstrip your competition. Analyze results.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius)—Some matters or decisions may not please you, but this should not keep you from having a really progressive, and happy day. You can help others, too.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—Follow a steady, comprehensive program. Elimination of waste motion, hastens progress. Elevate thoughts to high objectives and concentrate efforts only in right directions.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—Those in medicine, teaching, instructing, analytical work are under especially good influences, but all Aquarians are favored and can reach new heights. Do your best.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—Tackle chores efficiently, and without anxiety. Get details straight, but don't dally over them. Use your fine mind, and go forward hopefully, confidently.

YOU BORN TODAY are a cuspal, born on the change of a Sign—in this case, Leo to Virgo. You are versatile, roundly capable, critical, tend to dominate at times. As with all bright minds and active beings, you must be cautioned against overdoing or being overbearing. Develop your appreciation of the intellectual; curb pride; believe in the best, don't dwell on the worst. Birthdate of: Aubrey Beardsley, artist.

Have Some Fun With This Hand

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

If you want to have some fun with today's hand, copy down the North and South hands and give them to your friends to bid. Seven spades is a lay-down but it is a fairly tough grand slam to reach by scientific bidding methods.

Of course a lot of North players will simply check for aces once they hear the opening spade bid and then go to the spade grand slam. This method would succeed this time but it is not difficult to set up a lot of very sound spade bids which will leave no play at all for the grand slam.

Smart Figuring!

When Al Merriam and Carolyn Levitt held this hand in the St. Louis regionals they solved their problem by inventing a series of bids.

Al responded three spades and Carolyn went on to four. She expected that the bidding was over when "lo and behold" Al bid five diamonds.

This bid was a new one to her and she wondered just what was going on. Finally she decided that Al wanted to know that she could handle the second diamond lead. Hence, in spite of her minimum high card holding and the fact that Al's bid had come as a complete surprise to her, she bid six diamonds.

This was enough for Al. He closed the bidding by a call of seven spades.

This article should probably have started by mentioning that Carolyn and Al won the tournament against a very strong field. If this is an example of their bidding it is easy to see why they did so well.

Play Safe While You Drive!

Keep alert—chew gum

Avoid traffic jitters and driving drowsiness. Chew gum while you're behind the wheel. Chewing helps relieve strain and tension—helps keep you feeling fresh and alert for safer driving. Chew any brand of gum you like but chew while you drive. Naturally, we recommend Wrigley's Spearmint Gum—for lively, satisfying flavor and real chewing enjoyment.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
